TESTIMONY TO ITS EXCELLENCE.

For the student, the professional man, the teacher, the school, the family, in fact, for every one who cares to add to his store of knowledge, we consider this splendid work is eminently suited.—Canada School Journal, Toronto, April, 1884.

There should not be a school in the Dominion, where access cannot readily and constantly be had to it.—The Canada Educational Monthly, Toronto, Oct., 1881.

As a defining, orthographic and pronouncing dictionary, the New Edition of Webster's Unabridged may be regarded as a standard authority in the English Language.—The Educational Record, Montreal, Aug., 1884.

It has always been considered a standard authority, but its value as such has been vastly increased by constant revision and the addition of much new matter. It is a work that should be in every library—The Mail, Toronto, February 5, 1886.

It may be regarded as the one final authority, safely to be relied on.—The Week, Toronto, 1884. It has long since established its claim, past the power of even envy to dispute, to a place in the very highest ranks of such publications. Those who have given it the most careful consideration will be the most enthusiastic in its praise.—The Globe, Toronto, July, 1884.

The best and most useful Dictionary of the English language ever published.—London Times.

In journalistic work I have long kept close company with Webster's Unabridged, and regard it as the one great Dictionary of the English language.—J. E. B. McCready, Esq., Editor Daily Telegraph, St. John, N. B., July, 1885.

I know of no other Dictionary which places within easy reach of the ordinary purse, such a bounty of useful and really necessary information, and which is at the same time so complete and thorough an exposition of our noble language.—Hon. John V. Ellis, M. P. P., Editor Daily Globe, St. John, N. B., August, 1885.

Webster is Standard Authority with the U.S. Supreme Court and in the Government Printing Office. It is recommended by the State Superintendents of Schools in 36 States, and by the leading College Presidents of the U.S. and Canada. The sale is 20 to 1 of any other series. Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

These pages are calculated for Toronto and Quebec, and for ordinary purposes will serve with sufficient accuracy for every city in the Dominion of Canada.

Moon's Phases.—This Table gives the times (standard 75th meridian) when the Moon passes the geocentric long-tudes of 0°, 90°, 180°, and 270° east of the sun. It gives also the times of her greatest and least distance from the earth.

TWILIGHT.—In this Table are given the standard times at which twilight begins in the morning and ends in the evening, i.e., the times when the Sun's centre is 18° below the horizon.*

Note.—Standard times are given in all columns headed Toronto or Quebec. In calculating, the mean time at these places has been taken at Toronto as 17m. 34s. slower, and at Quebec as 14m. faster than standard.

GREATEST ELONGATION OF THE POLE STAR.—This column gives the greatest azimuth of the Pole Star east or west from the meridian as observed at a place in latitude 45°. When the greatest elongation corresponding to any other latitude is required, the number given in the column should be corrected by means of the following Table.

Latitude	420	43°	440	450	460	470	480	490	50♥
1st Correction for Degrees 2nd Correction for each minute	-5'27"	-3' 43"	-1'55"	0' 00"	+ 2'1"	+ 4'8"	+6'22"	+8'44"	+11'14" of latitude	+ 1".7	+ 1".8	+ 1".9	+ 2".0	+ 2".1	+ 2".2	+ 2".4	+ 2".5	+ 2".6

The 1st correction for the degrees of latitude is to be subtracted from the greatest elongation given in the calendar or added to it, according as the degrees of latitude are less or greater than 45°.

The 2ud correction, which is always additive, is found by multiplying the number given in the third line of the Table by the number of minutes in the latitude.

Thus for	latitude	43° 20'1st co	rrection	=-3'	43"	2nd correction $+1.8 \times 20 = +0'36''$
66	66	470 40' "	66	= +4'	8"	" " +2.2 × 40 + 1' 28"
66	66	45° 10' "	44	- 0'	0"	" $+2.0 \times 10 = +0'20'$,

THE PLANETS.—The local mean times of rising and setting of the five chief planets are calculated for Toronto, and are corrected for refraction. The times of culmination, although computed for the meridian of Toronto, will serve approximately for the whole of Canada. The meridian zenith distances, being designed merely to aid in finding the planets, have been given only to the nearest tenth of a degree, as seen from the latitude of 45°.

The times of the Sun's RISING AND SETTING* are given for the upper limb, and are corrected for refraction for Toronto and Quebec,

The standard times both for the rising and setting of the Moon's centre are given or every day for Toronto and Ouebec.

The column, Sun on Meridian, gives the time that a watch keeping local mean time should show when the hadow of a sun dial is on the noon mark.

Moon's Age .- This column shows to the nearest tenth of a day the Moon's age at Toronto mean noon.

The column, UPPER TRANSIT OF POLE STAR, shows for every day the mean time at which the Pole Star makes to upper transit across the meridian of longitude 4h. 46m. W. It passes the meridian in the morning from April 11 to October 11. It passes the meridian twice on October 11: and in the afternoon during the rest of the year.

^{*} Although these times are calculated for Toronto and Quebec only, the standard times at other places differing not much in latitude from one of these places may be obtained with sufficient accuracy for ordinary purposes, by adding four minutes for every degree west of Toronto or Quebec, and subtracting four minutes for every degree east of Toronto or Quebec.

The time at which the lower transit of the Pole Star occurs may be found by adding 11h. 58m. 2s. to the time of the preceding upper transit.

The six last columns will serve with sufficient accuracy for the whole of Canada.

From the time of the upper transit of the Pole Star may be found the time of its greatest western or eastern elongation, by adding or subtracting the constants given in the annexed Table.

Latitude							48° 49° m s h m s
Constant Difference for 10' of latitude.	5 54 16	5 54 6	5 53 55	5 53 44	5 53 33	5 53 21 5	53 9 5 52 57	5 52 44

Star Table.

From the times of the upper transit of the Pole Star may be derived, with the aid of the following Table, the times of culmination, and of the rising and setting of the principal fixed stars, as seen from the parallel of 45° north latitude.

To ascertain when any star found in the following Table will be on the meridian, add the number in the left-hand column of figures to the preceding meridian transit of the pole star given in the calendar. To find the time of rising of a star, subtract the number opposite to it in the right-hand column of figures from the time of its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to the time of its meridian passage. Those stars marked (....) revolve in a circle of perpetusi apparition, and do not rise or set at places in and to the north of latitude 45°.

THE YEAR.

The length of the year is strictly expressed by the space of time required for the revolution of the earth round the sun—namely, 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 49 seconds, and 7 tenths of a second, for to such a nicety has this time been ascertained. But for convenience in reckoning, it has been found necessary to make the year terminate with a day instead of a fraction of one, lumping the fractions together so as to make up a day among themselves. About forty-five years before Christ, Julius Cæsar, having, by the help of Sosigenes, an Alexandrian philosopher, came to a tolerably clear understanding of the length of the year, decreed that every fourth year should be held to consist of 366 days, for the purpose of absorbing the odd hours. The arrangement he dictated was a rather clumsy one. A day in February, the sixth before the calends of March (sextitis), was to be repeated in that fourth year; and each fourth year was thus to be bissextitle. It was as if we were to reckon the 23rd of February twice over. Seeing that, in reality, a day every fourth year is too much by 11 minutes, 10 seconds, and 3 tenths of a second, it inevitably followed that the beginning of the year moved onward ahead of the point at which it was in the days of Cæsar; in other words, the natural time fell behind the reckoning. From the time of the Council of Nice, in 325, when the vernal equinox fell correctly on the 21st of March, Pope Gregory found in 1582 that there now the vernal equinox fell on the 11th of March. To correct the past error, he decreed that the 5th of October that year should be reckoned as the 15th, and, to keep the year right in future, the overplus being 18 hours, 37 minutes and 10 $econds in a century, he ordered that every centurial year that could not be divided by 4 (1700, 1800, 1900, 2100, 2200, &c.) should not be bissextile, as it otherwise would be; thus, in short, dropping the extra day three times every four hundred years. The Gregorian style, as it was called, readily obtained sway in Catholic, but not in Protestant countries. It was not adopted in Britain till the year 1752, by which time the discrepancy between the Julian and Gregorian periods amounted to eleven days. An Act of Parliament was passed, dictating that the 3rd of September that year should be reckoned the 14th, and that three of every four of the centurial years should, as in Pope Gregory's arrangement, not be bissextile or leap years. It has consequently arisen—1800 not having been a leap-year—that the new and old styles now differ by twelve days, our first of January being equivalent to the 13th old style. In Russia, alone, of all Christian countries, is the old style retained; wherefore it becomes necessary for one writing in that country to any foreign correspondent, to set down his date thus:

March, or 7th October; or, it may be, 9th Jacuary, 1881.

MISCELLANEOUS MATTER.

Miscellaneous matter, described as under, may pass between places in the Dominion of Canada upon prepayment of a rate of 1 cent per 4 oz. The limit of weight is 4 lbs. The regulations of the British Post Office do not admit of the transmission by mail to the United Kingdom (or other countries beyond the sea) of miscellaneous matter as such; but a great part of the matter refered to under taat head may be forwarded to the United Kingdom by Book Post.

On all pamphlets, occasional publications, priuted circulars, prices current, hand-bills, exhibitors' entry tickets for Dominion or Provincial Exhibitions, book and newspaper manuscripts, printers' proof sheets, whether corrected or not; maps, prints, drawings, engravings, lithographs, photographs, when not on glass or in cases containing glass; botanical and entomological specimens, when properly put up, so as to prevent injury to the contents of the mails; sheet music, whether printed or written; decuments wholly or partly printed or written, such as deeds, insnrance policies (including renewal receipts when attached to the policies) covers' lists, inilitia and school returns, or other documents of like nature, the rate of postage is one cent for each four ounces; provided that no letter or other communication intended to serve the purpose of a letter be sent or inclosed in any such package or thing mentioned, and that the same be sent in covers open at the ends or sides, or otherwise so put up as to admit of the contents being, if recessary, easily withdrawn for examination by the officers of the Post Office to ensure compliance with this provision; if enclosed in sealed envelopes notched at the ends or sides, or with the corners cut off, letter rate of postage will be charged; and that the postage rate be prepaid by postage stamp or stamped post bands or wrappers in all cases. Limit of weight, 4 lbs. To all parts of Manitoba, the North-West Territories and British Columbia (except the Cities of Winnipeg and Victoria and places along the line of the C. P. R., to which the 4-lb, limit applies), the limit of weight is 2 lbs. 3 oz.

No packet of miscellaneous matter can be transmitted by mail if it exceed 24 inches in length or 12 inches in width or depth.

NEWSPAPERS AND PERIODICALS.

Newspapers and periodicals printed and published in Canada, and issued not less frequently than once a month from a known office of publication or news agency, and addressed and posted to and from the same for transmission by mail to regular subscribers or news agents in Canada, are sent free; if addressed to Great Britain, or the United States, they may be posted by the same on prepayment of a rate of one cent for each pound weight in bulk, or fraction of a pound; and such newspapers and periodicals are to be put up into packages and delivered into the Post Office, and the postage rate thereon prepaid by the publisher or news agent, being the sender thereof, under such regulations as the Postmaster-General may from time to time make.

On all newspapers and periodicals posted in Canada, other than those addressed to regular subscribers or news agents, from office of publication or news agency, including all newspapers and periodicals published less frequently than once a month, the rate will be one cent per k oz., to be invariably prepaid by Postage Stamp.

Newspapers and periodicals weighing less than 1 oz. each may be posted singly, if prepaid by Postage Stamp & cent each.

TRANSIENT NEWSPAPERS.

If weighing less than 1 oz., half a cent each.

If weighing over 1 oz., one cent per four oz. or fraction of four oz.

Specimen copies of newspapers and periodicals from the office of publication are to be treated as transient newspapers or periodicals, the rate upon which is one cent per four oz.

On transient newspapers addressed to the United Kingdom the rate will be one cent per 2 oz.—to be prepaid by Postage Stamp. Canada newspapers posted from the office of publication to subscribers in the United Kingdom—if to be sent in the Mails forwarded via New York or Boston, must be prepaid by Postage Stamp at the transient paper rate of one cent per 2 oz.; but if sent by Canada Packet, such papers may pass, as now, on prepayment by the publisher, at the time of posting, of the radianary domestic rate of one cent per pound. Canadian Periodicals when sent by mail to the United Kingdom or to British Colonies or Foreign Countries (except the United States) are liable to ordinary book packet rates. All newspapers and periodicals prepaid at the bulk rate of 1 cent per lb., must be stamped "Prepaid by Publisher," at the Post Office where the newspaper or periodical is mailed. The English Post Office requires each newspaper or periodical to be stamped. If sent in packages the English Post Office declines to forward them.

PATTERNS OR SAMPLES WITHIN THE DOMINION.

Patterns and Samples of Merchandise and Goods for sale, not exceeding 24 oz. in weight, may be posted in Canada, to be forwarded to any place within the Dominion, on prepayment by Postage Stamp of a rate of 1 cent per 4 oz., under the following regulations:

If such rate be not fully prepaid by the stamps affixed, the packet to be rated with the deficient postage, and a fine of 5 cents in addition.

Packages of Samples and Patterns, addressed to any place in Canada, may be registered by affixing thereto a registration stamp of the value of 5 cents in addition to the postage rate, and provided such packet be handed unto the Post Office for registration.

Patterns or Samples must be sent in covers open at the ends, so as to be easy of examination. Samples, however, of seeds, drugs, &c., which cannot be sent in open covers, may be enclosed in bags of linen, or such like material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened; or in bags entirely closed, provided that they be transparent, so that the officers of the Post Office may be able to satisfy themselves as to the nature of the contents.

The packet may bear on the outside the address of the sender, in addition to the address of the person for whom it may be intended; and also a trade mark or number, and the price of the sample enclosed; inside, there must be no enclosure but the samples or patterns themselves. The particulars, however, of the trade marks, numbers, and prices, may be marked on the articles themselves instead of on the outside of the packet, at the option of the sender.

Goods sent for sale or in execution of an order, however small the quantity may be, or any article sent by one private individual to another, which are not actually trade patterns or samples, are not admissible.

PARCEL POST.

The charges on Parcels by the Parcel Post to places within the Dominion, is 6 cents for every 4 oz. or fraction thereof (with 5 cents additional if Registered). No letter must be inclosed; if any discovered, the amount paid will be forfeited, and the Parcel charged at unpaid Letter rates. No Parcel must exceed 5 lbs. in weight, and must be prepaid by stamps.

Parcels cannot be transmitted by Post to any place beyond the limits of the Dominion of Canada (except to the United Kingdom), nor can any Paccel be forwarded to British Columbia or Manitoba (except to the cities of Winnipeg and Victoria, B.C., and places actually upan the line of the C. P. R., to which the limit is 5 lbs.) which exceeds in weight the limit of 2 lbs. 3 oz.

Eye-glasses and spectacles may be sent by mail when properly put up and prepared by Parcel Post.

PARCEL POST WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM.

An arrangement has been entered into with the Post Office of the United Kingdom for a Parcel Post, under which closed Parcels not exceeding 3 lbs. in weight may be posted in the United Kingdom, when addressed for delivery at certain Post Offices in Canada, and may in like manner be posted at those Canadian Post Offices for destinations in the United Kingdom.

The Parcels exchanged with the United Kingdom will pass exclusively in the Weekly Mails conveyed by the Canadian Steamers to and from the St. Lawrence in Summer and Halifax in Winter, and such Parcels cannot be sent via New York.

The Parcel Post with the United Kingdom will be geverned by the following regulations :-

- A Parcel must not exceed 3 lbs. in weight.
- 2. The dimensions of a Parcel must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth.
- 3. A Parcel must not contain any explosive, combustible, or dangerous articles, nor any article of a perishable or fragile character, nor liquids or matters likely to injure other Parcels or mail transmissions.

- All Parcels must be securely and substantially packed and closed.
- 5. Each Parcel must be plainly directed, and such direction must include the name and full address of the person for whom the Parcel is intended.
- 6. For each Parcel the sender must fill up a Customs Declaration. On this form the sender will supply an accurate statement of the contents and value of the Parcel, also the address thereof, with signature and place of abode of the sender. The Customs Declaration must be securely affixed by mucilage or paste to the Parcel to which it relates.
- As Parcels from the United Kingdom will be liable to Canadian Customs duties, and under existing regulations must be examined for the purpose by an Officer of the Customs in the presence of the persons addressed, it has been necessary in commencing this Parcel Post with the United Kingdom, to limit its operation for the present in Canada to Parcels addressed to or posted at places where Officers of the Customs are stationed.

For the purposes of the Parcel Post the Dominion is divided into 4 sections of about 1,000 miles each, from East to West, on the line from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to Victoria, British Columbia, thus :-

will live in the memory of Canadians as the year of the completion of that gigantic enterprise, the Canadian Pacific Railway. out of the Act of 1871, under which the Province of British Columbia was admitted te Confederation, it was, through the indomitable courage, the enterprise, the financial and administrative skill of a handful of individuals, presented to the nation in 1886 as a complete and rapid means of intercommunication with the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. We could find no more appropriate subject to devote a few pages of this annual, and in brief, therefore, we give an outline of the history of this great

The isolation of the Crown Colony of British Columbia was her chief obstacle in entering into the consolidation of the Provinces. She was separated from older Canada by ranges of absolutely unexplored mountains, by over a thousand miles of then called "barren rocky wastes," known only to the Indian tribes and servants of the Hudson Bay Company. view of this the British Columbians made it a sine qua non that a means of access from their Colony to the known East (then the head of Lake Superior) should be their condition of joining the Sisterhood. They were very modest, however, and in 1868 stipulated merely for a "waggon road" at first, to be followed within three years by the commencement of a transcontinental railway, upon which $1,000,000 was to be expended annually in British It was not until the 20th June, Columbia. 1871, that British Columbia became a Province of the Dominion of Canada under the pledge that the railway should be immediately commenced and completed within ten years. Surveys were at once started here and elsewhere and vigorously pushed forward by the Government.

It was contemplated from the first by the Act of Parliament that the railway "Shall be "constructed and worked by private enter-"prise and not by the Dominion Government, "and that the public aid to be extended shall "consist of such liberal grants of land and such "subsidy as the Parliament of Canada shall "hereafter determine."

To this end two companies were formed in 1872 to undertake the work, but difficulties arising they dissolved, and a new one under the presidency of the late Sir Hugh Allan resulted, and to it the contract for the building of the railway from a point near Lake Nipissing to the Pacific Ocean was let, the Government undertaking to contribute $30,000,000 and 50,000,000 acres of land. After a year's negotiation Sir Hugh Allan's company failed to secure the assistance of European capitalists, and finally surrendered its charter. Here followed a change of Administration, and the Government under whose auspices the scheme

The year which has just closed is one that opponents. This brings us to the end of 1873. The new Government had, when in opposition, opposed many of the plans for the construction of the railway on the ground of undue haste and too large an annual expenditure. action had to be taken, and negotiations were opened, in 1874, with British Columbia for a modification of the original terms of the Act of 1871. The policy set forth was to substitute for an "all-rail" line across British America a line which should consist partly of railway and partly of lake and river navigation. British Columbians, uneasy and distrustful, agreed finally to refer the question of their rights to Lord Carnarvon as arbitrator, and in 1875 an extension of ten years (or until 31st December, 1890,) for the completion of the railway was determined upon, and the sum to be expended annually in British Columbia in its construction was increased to $2,000,000.

The Government let a contract in 1874 for the building of 63 miles of the railway to connect Emerson, on the international boundary, with St. Boniface, on the Red River, opposite Winnipeg. They now, in 1875, let further contracts; one for a stretch of 113 miles, from Selkirk, on the Red River, eastwards to Keewatin, on the Lake of the Woods; and another for 32 miles, from Fort Williams, on Lake Superior, westwards to Sunshine Creek. the following year, 1876, a further contract was let for 80 miles, from the latter point to English River, making for the three years 288 miles under contract, and up to the end of this year over $3,000,000 had been spent on surveys.

In 1877 the gap of 22 miles between St. Boniface and Selkirk was put under contract. The following year, 1878, as the result of the work of the numerous surveying parties, it was announced that the route selected was from Lake Superior to Selkirk, thence across Lake Manitoba to Battleford and Edmonton, and through the "Yellow Head" Pass, down the Thomson and Frazer rivers to Burrard Inlet. The year 1878, however, saw another change of Government, and the reins were resumed with the determination to vigorously push the work. Accordingly in March, 1879, contracts were let for 118 miles westward from English River and for the intervening gap of 67 miles between that point and Keewatin: thus the line from Lake Superior to Red River was under construction. Contracts were let also for a bridge across the Red River at St. Boniface, for the first 100 miles west of Winnipeg, and for 127 miles of difficult work from Kamloops Lake to the navigable waters of the Frazer River below Yale in British Columbia. In all, 722 miles under contract at the end of 1879 as against 310 at 31st December, 1878. At the same time rails were laid from Emerson to a point 90 miles east of Selkirk-or 175 miles-161 of which were used for regular traffic, and from Fort William westward 136 was inaugurated had to make way for their miles of track were ready for operation.

During the following year an association of a few capitalists who had been among those who had undertaken and accomplished the task of saving from a wreck and completing profitably and successfully what is now known as the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba Railway (connecting with the Canadian Pacific Railway at the international boundary) turned their attention to the work which the Government had in hand, and made a proposition to carry it out as originally contemplated, by "private enterprise." A provisional contract was entered into, ratified by Parliament on the 15th of February, 1881, when the charter was granted to the present "Canadian Pacific Railway." Under this charter the company undertook to connect Callender (the termiuus of the Canada Central Railway) with the eastern terminus of the Government line on Lake Superior-estimated at 650 miles-and to connect the west end of the Government line in Manitoba with Kamloops, in British Columbia -an estimated distance of 1,350 miles. consideration the Government were to complete the line from Yale to Fort Moody, 88 miles and to hand over to the company completed all their lines then under contract-in all, 711 miles,—pay them $25,000,000 and give them 25,000,000 acres of land. The company undertook to have the system completed throughout in ten years, or by the 1st May, 1891.

In February, 1881, the position was briefly this: That the company undertook to build, equip throughout, and have in operation by May, 1891, 2,000 miles of railway, for the most part across a terra incognita.

Assuredly there was no time to be lost, and none was wasted, for active work was immediately commenced. The Government line west of Winnipeg to Portage la Prairie was, with the exception of 18 miles-what is now known as the Stonewall Branch-taken up, and a new and more southerly location—the wisdom of which has since been incontestibly proven by results-selected; and by the end of the year, in spite of opposition and difficulties that would have discouraged most men, the rails were laid to Flat Creek, 162 miles west of Winnipeg; final location was completed to Moosejaw, 398 miles, and a preliminary line to Calgary was approved. The new location necessitated a more southerly pass through the Rocky Mountains than that selected by the Government, and to an engineer of experience was entrusted the responsibility of finding it.

The Canada Central Railway, which was looked to to furnish a connection eastward from Callender, had now reached Mattawa, 199 miles west of Ottawa, and had 26 miles to build to reach Callender. At this juncture an amalgamation was brought about, under which, on the 9th June, the Canada Central was absorbed by the Canadian Pacific Railway, whose eastern terminus now became Ottawa.

1882 was a busy year. The necessity for a further extension eastward from Ottawa became apparent, and during the course of the year the new company acquired from the Government of the Province of Quebec that portion of their system, the Quebec, Ottawa and Occidental Railway, between Ottawa and Montreal, which now became the terminus. On the prairies a contract was let for 670 miles of railway, and by the end of the year trains were running 605 miles west of Winnipeg, and the grading beyond was so far advanced that only 150 miles remained to complete that contract. In the East the line had been completed to Callender, and the rails laid to North Bay beyond-364 miles from Montreal. East of Port Arthur work was advancing, rails were laid for 20 miles, and surveying parties were out in force along the north shore of Lake Superior, and thence eastward toward North Bay. In all, nearly 25,000 men were engaged on the work, and they had to be provided with every necessary to sustain life and prosecute the work.

On the 2nd May, 1881, the Government had handed over the line from Winnipeg to Telford for operation by the company, as also the line from Emerson to Stonewall; this was followed, on the 10th April, 1882, by the section of the Thunder Bay line from Telford to Rat Portage, and in 1883, on the 11th May, by the section from Rat Portage to Port Arthur, thus giving the company the line from Lake Superior to Winnipeg.

By the 27th November, 1883, the rails had reached within four miles of the summit of the Rocky Mountains, and the road was being operated to that point. An excellent line had in the meantime been found through the Rocky Mountains to the Columbia River. From North Bay the line had been completed to Sudbury, 80 miles west of North Bay, and in the gap intervening between that point and Port Arthur the company had a force of over 7,000 men on hand to prosecute the work during the winter.

In 1884 untiring energy continued to be displayed. One hundred and thirty-nine miles of track were completed west of Sudbury; the work on the north of Lake Superior, the most difficult and expensive of any yet undertaken, was being hurried on, rails being laid in disconnected sections as circumstances permitted and necessity demanded; through the Rockies, down the Kicking Horse Valley to Donald, on the Columbia, the rails were laid; the practicability of the pass through the Selkirks was assured; engineers were at work in this range and beyond it, and work was let from Savonas Ferry eastward, the calculation being that the construction parties from the east and from the west would meet in the Gold Range.

In order to get the full benefit of their completed lines, the Company in 1884 established their Lake Superior Steamships, which served the purpose of a ferry between the disconnected ends of the line.

Throughout the winter of 1884 and 1885 there was no cessation to operations: north of Lake Superior in the Selkirks, Gold Range and Shuswap Lake country, all were busy, nothing stopped the way. Difficulties, at first sight insurmountable, melted away, and the gaps decreased. In the early spring the utility of the railway from a political point of view was demonstrated. The large bodies of troops destined to suppress the North-West rebellion were taken charge of by the company, carried, fed, housed, and landed at the seat of war in good order, in a short space of time, without accident, and in spite of intervening sections of unfinished railway. On the 19th May the rails from the east were connected with those from Port Arthur, 714 miles west of Montreal, thus completing the all-rail line from Montreal to the Selkirk Mountains; later on the section of the line from Port Moody to Kamloops Lake was opened for traffic, and on the 7th November of the same year the connection was made between east and west parties in British Columbia at Craigellachie-2,552 miles from Montreal, and the national highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific was an accomplished fact, the company having contributed their share of it in 4 years and 9 months—or less than half the stipulated time, and the Government kept faith with the Province of British Columbia, with five years and seven months to boot!

The equipment of the line had in the meantime been in progress, and in carrying it out older methods were discarded for new where these could tend to the profit of the young company. Having to provide large quantities of rolling stock, the most recent improvements were adopted throughout: the comfort of the rich was studied in the sleepings cars, the necessities and comfort of the poor in the free colonist sleepers. No expense was spared to have the best, refined taste was combined with the useful, and the consequence is that a train of the Canadian Pacific Railway, as it may be seen any day, either in the older provinces, the plains, the mountains, or on the Pacific Coast, stands as a model, which experience has been ably assisted by taste and art in producing. It was a well known fact that sleeping car companies made handsome profits from the railway companies who used their cars. It was argued therefore by the management of the Canadian Pacific Railway that if these sleeping car companies could derive so much benefit from this service, why should not these advantages be enjoyed by the railway company itself; and consequently they built, equipped, and now operate with every satisfaction to the traveller their own sleeping cars.

The same argument applied to the commercial telegraph service, to the grain elevators, and other subsidiary services which had hitherto always fallen to the lot of outside organizations, and these the Canadian Pacific Railway Company took in hand, and have learned the advantage of so doing.

The reasons why the Canadian Pacific Railway deserves the prominent position it occupies are easily stated. They are:—

1. The national importance of the railway-

not only to Canada but to the British Empire

2. Its vastness, the difficulties which were encountered, the rapidity with which the work was carried on, and the thoroughness with which it is completed.

3. The effect it must have in changing the centre of gravity of the commerce of North America internally and with trans-oceanic countries.

The desirability of railway communication throughout the provinces was, as a broad principle, pretty generally conceded by all grades of politicians. It was merely the question of how long this desirable end should be delayed, and whether too lavish a railway policy-in point of time-would or would not be injurious to the country in the main. It resolved itself into advancement step by step as the country west of Winnipeg became settled, for a bold effort, which should at once accomplish that which was sought for by those who conceived the scheme,—the connection of British Columbia with old Canada, -and at the same time give the company the benefit of through traffic from ocean to ocean, in addition to the purely local traffic which the first alternative would only have permitted. The question was one that lacked not discussion, and the more advanced policy was carried to a successful issue. Politically and commercially, we can to-day realize the wisdom of the course adopted-Canada is in a position to reap at once the advantages which, varied to a degree, are found in the development of the natural resources of thousands of miles beyond her reach. A new market is found for the products and industries of the east; a new field is opened to the enterprise of her youth, who, instead of having to serve others in the more crowded east, can now serve themselves in the west, and send the fruits of their labor to the older provinces and abroad. The wealth of the wheat regions of the North-West, the highly favored cattle ranges, the mineral resources in the intervening country, and in the mountains, must all redound to the profit of the country, and help materially to make it what it is bound to be, a "land of plenty." And we have already felt the touch of the Orient trade. We have seen teas from Japan and China landed in Canada, carried overland through Canada, delivered in Canada, and, furthermore, forwarded to cities throughout the United States from Canada. Why should we not be in a position to commence to-day a profitable commerce, rather than that it should be postponed for years—perhaps for many years?

From the scattered nature of the possessions of Great Britain rapidity of communication between them, and invulnerability of such channels of communication, are probably the most important points to which the Imperial authorities have to look, and upon their merits the bases of supply must depend. Alive to this, the British Government have not been slow in seeing that, so far as her Eastern Colonies and Dependency are concerned, the Canadian Pacific Railway combines the necessary qualifications. India, China and Australia, and the lesser British Colonies in the Pacific, were dependent until now, in case of pressing need, upon the integrity of the Suez Canal. England has neighbours of uncertain temper, and a canal can be effectually blocked—as has already occurred-by a sunken dredger. Not so with the new Canadian route; running through British territory, it is always open, always free to British troops. It has naval and military depots-stores, docks and unlimited steam coal at either end-within hail, so to speak, of Bermuda, and five days' sail from England. Halifax, at one end, can supply men and materials of war to be forwarded to the Pacific terminus, within comparatively short steaming distance of all strategic points on the Pacific, and the demand cannot overtask the carrying capacity which, so far as the railway is concerned, can be placed at the services of the Government in time of need.

In point of time China, Japan and Australia can be reached from England in less time than by the old routes and India as soon, and the deadly Red Sea will be avoided. With fast steamships an improved mail service will surely be established by the British postal authorities to the Pacific Colonies; the argument of "time saved" can lead to no other result, and on this point they are satisfied. It will be seen, therefore, that our Canadian Railway is assuming already a broader character, and has earned for itself in the British press the title of "The Imperial Highway."

The longest continuous line of rails in the world, it presented difficulties in its construction which are unparalleled. Commencing at the east from Callender, through what was termed the "Nipissing Section" to Lake Superior, some four hundred miles, the country to be traversed was a broken tract, rocky, timbered, and interspersed throughout were innumerable lakes and streams. It was entirely uninhabited, and provisions, clothing and necessaries of every description for the men engaged in building the railway had to be provided by the company. Storehouses had to be established, hospitals built and medical staff provided, fodder for horses, material, tools and explosives for the work. There were necessarily camps for long distances ahead of the tracks as it advanced, and to keep them supplied waggon roads, called "tote" or "cadge" roads, had to be built, and in many cases at a cost per mile exceeding the cost of many a mile of some completed railway. From the nature of the situation access could only be had to the works from one end, and the transportation of all the necessaries for the maintenance of life and uninterrupted prosecution of the works of construction was a task of no mean order. Next to this came the Lake Superior Section, where the work consisted mounted; did space permit and occasion war-chiefly of cutting and tunnelling through rocks of the hardest possible character, or hewing a bench or ledge around the face of beetling cliffs towering hundreds of feet above. Here, and to some extent in the mountains, the company found it prudent and economical to manufacture their explosives largely on the spot, and the total sum spent on explosives on the entire works amounted to over $21,000,000, and from this figure some idea may be formed of the amount of blasting that was necessary. On this section occurs the most costly work per mile of the whole railway, some particular miles having cost from $600,000 to $700,000 per mile. It is true that in the summer time access could be had to the scene of action at sundry points along the shore of the lake, the railway following pretty closely all its sinuosities, but the moment navigation closed it was an entirely different thing. The vast body of men at work there were completely cut off from the outer world until the following spring, and they had to be provided beforehand with every thing that experience could suggest. No waggon roads were practicable here; intercommunication was possible by boat in the summer, but in the winter pedestrians only could visit their neighbours.

There was nothing out of common in the work on the prairies. Good progress could be made, and supplies and material easily forwarded by teams; but the speed with which the track was laid, and laid for good on all, was phenomenal. The average for one mouth was over three miles per working day, and one particular day over six miles were laid !

When the mountains were reached it was a different matter; "tote" roads again had to be built at great expense; difficult engineering questions bristled on all sides; rivers had to be diverted, lakes drained, mountains tunnelled, chasms bridged, and the material required for all these works anticipated for months. Yet, throughout the whole period of these works, the Transportation Department never once failed to respond promptly to the call of the Construction Department, which was not delayed a day for material!

To carry on these operations on three extended sections (at one time four), to pay the wages, buy the supplies, clothing, food for men, and fodder for horses, was in itself a financial undertaking such as only nations before had attempted; but it was done. In spite of a depressed market when the company's shares were offered to the public, in spite of opposition from rivals, from an unfriendly section of our public press, all of which was more or less effective, the company managed to hold its own. The government did it is true, at a critical point, offer some measure of relief in the shape of a temporary loan, but this the company were in a position to repay almost simultaneously with the opening of the through line for traffic. These are some of the difficulties which had to be surrant, more could be given, but we must confine ourselves to the outline sketch, as promised.

We have in the foregoing indicated wherein, in some respects, trade which has until now followed certain grooves by years of constant habit, is likely to be turned into this new channel. Tourists from older Britain to the east, those who have settled in the Pacific colonies and India, weary of dusty, burned up Aden in the Red Sea, and broiling heat of Egypt, will gladly take advantage of our temperate clime, varying their journey with land and sea, visiting new cities, new people, and enjoying mountain scenery which no other country can offer to them. Instead of turning their faces to the east on leaving England, we shall of a certainty see them facing west, and be ready to welcome them as they pass through our Dominion. Our neighbors south have in the past monopolized all men and things that had to cross the continent of America, but years are passing, and thanks to a progressive age we have placed ourselves in the position to vie with them; and there is room for all.

We have spoken of the Canadian Pacific Railway only so far as its main line was concerned; but it must not be forgotten that while all we have described was in active progress, a very complete system was being put together, piece by piece, in Ontario and Manitoba. It reaches every important city and town in Canada, and by purchase of the government line reaches Quebec from Montreal. In addition it has provided the more advanced of its newer districts with branch lines, and all the advantages railway service can contribute towards the welfare of the pioneer.

The trade of the Pacific Slope, and eastern merchandise for its people, will now, to a greater or lesser extent, so far as the country south of the 49th parallel is concerned, have a new candidate, young, vigorous, and amply able to hold its own with its neighbours. These words are not prophetic, for already the influence of the new element in the carrying trade to and from the Pacific is felt, and so substantially appreciated by the public, that Canada has experienced the benefit of a share of the business hitherto confined to the more southern routes across the continent.

The great north-western country of the United States, which with its cereals feeds the mills of Minneapolis, stocks the elevators of Chicago, and furnishes breadstuffs for European markets, will shortly find a readier and more speedy route by which to reach the shipping of the Atlantic. And here we think we see a fund of wealth for Canada, which at present has far from been recognized by her people. Geographically, a line drawn from St. Paul and Minneapolis to Montreal, and with scarcely any deviation produced to St. John, N. B., and Halifax, N. S., would cross our boundary line at Sault Ste. Marie. And this line is precisely the one that is being followed by railways under survey and construction which will be finished by the close of the present year. Once at Sault Ste. Marie, the American line from St. Paul will be joined by the Algoma Branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, now being extended to the Sault Ste. Marie River, and with the short line to St. John and Halifax, the wheat fields of the American North-West will find an outlet to the seaboard four hundred miles less distant than by any other existing outlet, and a shorter route to New York, Boston and other United States ports than the shortest now available, and, in addition, the heavy expense at Chicago and the present shipping ports will be avoided. It only rests with Canada to foster this new trade and open her eyes to the advantages which must inevitably follow its development.

How these changes have been wrought in a short five years, how Canada has been forced into prominence, its hundreds of thousands of miles of unknown country brought to light, rendered accessible, and now furnishing homes to all who care to come, will be known to future generations as the outcome of "The Canadian Pacific Railway."

THE NEW ONTARIO BANKRUPTCY ACT.

48 VICTORIA, CHAPTER 26.

AN ACT RESPECTING ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.

[Assented to 30th March, 1885.]

WHEREAS great difficulty is experienced in determining cases arising under the present law relating to the transfer of property by persons in insolvent circumstances, or on the eve of insolvency, and it is desirable to remedy the same ;

Therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as fol-

1.—Section 2 of the Act respecting the Fraudulent Preference of Creditors by persons in insolvent circumstances, chapter 118 of the Revised Statutes, and Section 3 of the Administration of Justice Act, 1884, are hereby repealed, and the following sections are substituted therefor:

2.- Every gift, conveyance, assignment or transfer, delivery over or payment of any goods, chattels or effects, or of any bills, bonds, notes, securities, or of any shares, dividends, premiums or bonus in any bank, company or corporation, or of any other property, real or personal, made by any person at a time when he is in insolvent circumstances, or is unable to pay his debts in full, or knows that he is on the eve of insolvency, with intent to defeat, delay, or prejudice his creditors, or to give any one or more of them a preference over his other creditors, or over any one, or more of them, or which has such effect, shall, as against them, be utterly void.

3.-(1) Nothing in the preceding section shall apply to assignments made to the sheriff of the county in which the debtor resides or carries on business, or to another assignee with the consent of the creditors as hereinafter provided, for the purpose of paying ratably and proportionately and without preference or priority all the creditors of the debtor their just debts; nor to any bona fide sale or payment made in the ordinary course of trade or calling to innocent purchasers or parties; nor to any payment of money to a creditor unless an assignment for the general benefit of creditors is made within one month after the payment is made, nor to any bona fide gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer or delivery over of any goods, securities or property of any kind, as above-mentioned, which is made in consideration of any present actual bona fide payment in money, or by way of security for any present actual bona fide advance of money, or which is made in consideration of any present actual bona fide sale or delivery of goods or other property; Provided that the money paid, or the goods or other property sold or delivered bear a fair and reasonable relative value to the consideration therefor.

Act respecting wages passed during the present session, or to prevent a debtor providing for payment of wages due by him in accordance with the provisions of any such Act. (Amended by Sec. 1, Chap. 25, 49 Vic.)

(3) In case a payment of money is made to a creditor under the circumstances mentioned in the second section, and within one month before the execution of an assignment for the general benefit of creditors under this Act, the same shall be void as against the assignment, but not as against persons claiming in any other way.

(4) The debtor may, in the first place, with the consent of a majority of his creditors having claims of $100 and upwards commuted according to the provisions of section 18, make a general assignment for the benefit of his creditors, to some person other than the

- 4.—Every assignment made under this Act for the general benefit of creditors shall be valid and sufficient if it is in the words following, that is to say, all my personal property which may be seized and sold under execution and all my real estate, credits and effects, or if it is in words to the like effect; and an assignment so expressed shall vest in the assignee all the real and personal estate, rights, property, credits and effects, whether vested or contingent, belonging at the time of the assignment to the assignor, except such as are by law exempt from seizure or sale under execution, subject, however, as regards lands, to the provisions of the registry law as to the registration of the assignment.
- 5.—If any assignor or assignors executing an assignment under this Act for the general benefit of his or their creditors owes or owe debts, both individually and as a member of a co-partnership, or as a member of two different co-partnerships, the claims shall rank first upon the estate by which the debts they represent were contracted, and shall only rank upon the other after all the creditors of that other have been paid in full.
- 6.—A majority in number and value of the creditors who have proved claims to the amount of $100 or upwards may, at their discretion, substitute for the sheriff a person residing in the county in which the debtor resided or carried on business at the time of the assignment. An assignee may also be removed, and another assignee may be substituted, or an additional assignee may be appointed by a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court where the assignment is registered.

7.—(1) Save as provided in the next subsection, the assignee shall have an exclusive (2) Nothing herein contained is to effect any | right of suing for the rescission of agreements, deeds and instruments or other transactions made or entered into in fraud of creditors, or made or entered into in violation of the Act respecting the fraudulent preference of creditors by persons in insolvent circumstances, or of this Act.

(2) If at any time any creditor desires to cause any proceeding to be taken which, in his opinion, would be for the benefit of the estate, and the trustee, under the authority of the creditors and inspectors, refuses or neglects to take such proceeding, after being duly required to do so, such creditor shall have the right to obtain an order of the Judge authorizing him to take such proceedings in the name of the trustee, but at his own expense and risk, upon such terms and conditions as to indemnity to the assignee, as the Judge may prescribe, and thereupon any benefit derived from such proceedings shall belong exclusively to the creditor instituting the same for his benefit, but if, before such order is granted, the assignee shall signify to the Judge his readiness to institute such proceedings for the benefit of the creditors, the order shall prescribe the time within which he shall do so, and in that case the advantage derived from such proceeding, if instituted within such time, shall appertain to the estate.

8.—If the person to whom any such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery or payment, as in Section 2 of this Act is mentioned, has been made shall have sold or disposed of the property which was the subject of such gift, conveyance, assignment, transfer, delivery or payment, or any part thereof, the moneys or other proceeds realized therefor may be seized or recovered in any action under the last preceding sections as fully and effectually as the property if still remaining in the possession or control of such person could have been seized or recovered.

9.—An assignment for the general benefit of creditors under this Act shall take precedence of all judgments and of all executions not completely executed by payment. (Amended by Sec. 2, 49 Vic., Chap. 26.)

10.-No advantage shall be taken or gained by any creditor of any mistake, defect or imperfection in any a signment under this Act for the general benefit of creditors if the same can be amended or corrected, and if there be any mistake, defect or imperfection therein the same shall be amended by any Judge of the High Court of Justice, or of the County Court aforesaid, on application of any creditor of the assignor, or of the assignee, on such notice being given to other parties concerned as the Judge shall think reasonable, and such amendments, when made, shall have relation back to the date of the said assignment.

11.—The assignee shall receive such remuneration as shall be voted to him by the creditors at any meeting called for the purpose after the first dividend sheet has been prepared; or by the Inspectors, in case of the creditors failing to provide therefor, subject to the review of the County Court of the county in which the assignment is registered, or the Judge thereof, if complained of by the assignee or any of the creditors.

- 12.—(1) No assignment for the benefit of creditors under this Act shall be within the operation of the Revised Statutes of Ontario, chapter 119, intituled An Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property; but a notice of the assignment shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be published (amended by Sec. 3, 49 Vic., Chap. 26) in the Ontario Gazette and in one newspaper at least, having a general circulation in the county in which the property assigned is situate; and the publication in each shall be continued therein for at least four times.
- (2) A counterpart or copy of every such assignment shall also within five days from the execution thereof be registered, (together with an affidavit of a witness thereto of the due execution of such assignment or of the due execution of the assignment of which the copy filed purports to be a copy), in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county or union of counties where the assignor, if a resident in Ontario, resides at the time of the execution thereof, or if he is not a resident then in the office of the clerk of the county court of the county or union of counties where the personal property so assigned is or where the principal part thereof (in case the same includes property in more counties than one) is at the time of the execution of the assignment; and such clerks shall file all such instruments presented to them respectively for that purpose, and shall endorse thereon the time of receiving the same in their respective offices, and the same shall be kept there for the inspection of all persons interested therein. The said clerks respectively shall number and enter such assignments, and be entitled to the same fees for services in the same manner as if the assignments had been registered under the Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property.
- 13.—If the said notice is not published in the regular number of the Canadian Gazette, and of such newspaper as aforsaid, which shall respectively be issued first after five days from the execution of the assignment by the assignor, or if the assignment is not registered as aforsaid within five days from the execution thereof, the assignor shall be liable to a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every day which shall pass after the issue of the number of the newspaper in which the notice should have appeared until the same shall have been published; and a like penalty for each and every day which shall pass after the expiration of five days from the execution of the assignment by the assignor until the same shall have been registered.

(2) The assignee is to be subject to a like penalty for each and every day which shal pass after the expiration of five days from the delivery of the assignment to him, or of five days after his assent thereto, the burden of proving the time of such delivery or assent being upon the assignee.

(3) Such penalties may be recovered summarily before a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court of the county in which the assignment ought to be published or registered, one-half of the penalty shall go to the party suing and the other half for the benefit of the estate of the assignor.

14.—In case the assignment be not registered, and notice thereof published, an application may be made by any one interested in the assignment to a Judge of the High Court, or of the County Court aforesaid, to compel the publication and registration thereof; and the Judge shall make his order on that behalf, and with or without costs, or upon the payment of costs by such person as he may in his discretion direct to pay the same.

15.—The omission to publish or register as aforesaid, or any irregularity in the publication or registration, shall not invalidate the sssign-

16 .- It shall be the duty of the assignee to mmediately inform himself, by reference to the debtor and his records of account, of the names and residences of the debtor's creditors, and within five days from the date of assignment to convene a meeting of the creditors for the appointment of inspectors and the giving of directions with reference to the disposal of the estate, by mailing prepaid and registered to every creditor known to him, a circular calling a meeting of creditors to be held in his office or other convenient place to be named in the notices not later than twelve days after the mailing of such notice, and by advertisement in the Ontario Gazette; and all other meetings to be held shall be called in like manner.

17.—At any meeting of creditors the creditors may vote in person, or by proxy authorized in writing, but no creditor whose vote is disputed shall be entitled to vote until he has filed with the assignee an affidavit in proof of his claim stating the amount and nature thereof.

18.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 6, all questions discussed at meetings of creditors shall be decided by the majority of votes, and for such purpose the votes of creditors shall be calculated as follows:

For every claim of or over-

$100, and not exceeding $200 I vote. $500..... 2 votes. $200, $1,000..... 3 votes. additional $1,000, or fraction thereof. I vote.

(2) No person shall be entitled to vote on a claim acquired after the assignment unless the entire claim is acquired, but this shall not apply to persons acquiring notes, bills or other securities upon which they are liable.

(3) In case of a tie the assignee, or if there are two assignees, then the assignee appointed by the creditors, or by the Judge, if none has been appointed by the creditors, shall have a casting vote.

- (4) Every creditor in his proof of claim shall state whether he holds any security for his claim or any part thereof; and if such security is on the estate of the debtor, or on the estate of a third party for whom such debtor is only secondarily liable, he shall put a specified value thereon and the assignee under the authority of the creditors may either consent to the right of the debtor to rank for the claim after deducting such valuation, or he may require from the creditor an assignment of the security at an advance of ten per cent. upon the specified value to be paid out of the estate as soon as the assignee has realized such security; and in such case the difference between the value at which the security is retained and the amount of the gross claim of the creditor shall be the amount for which he shall rank and vote in respect of the estate.
- (5) If a creditor holds a claim based upon negotiable instruments upon which the debtor is only indirectly or secondarily liable, and which is not mature or exigible, such creditor shall be considered to hold security within the meaning of this section, and shall put a value on the liability of the party primarily liable thereon as being his security for the payment thereof; but after the maturity of such liability and its non-payment, he shall be entitled to amend and revalue his claim.
- 19.—(1) Every person claiming to be entitled to rank on the estate assigned shall furnish to the assignee particulars of his claim proved by affidavit and such vouchers as the nature of the case admits of.
- (2) A person whose claim has not accrued due shall nevertheless be entitled to prove under the assignment and vote at meetings of creditors, but in ascertaining the amount of any such claim a deduction for interest shall be made for the time which has to run until the claim becomes due.
- 20.—The law of set-off shall apply to all claims made against the estate and also to all suits instituted by the assignee for the recovery of debts due to the assignor, in the same manner and to the same extent as if the assignor were plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be, except in so far as any claim for set-off shall be affected by the provisions of this or any other Act respecting frauds or fraudulent preferences.
- 21.—Any affidavit authorized, or required, under this Act may be sworn before any person authorized to administer affidavits in the High Court, or before a Justice of the Peace, or, if sworn out of Ontario, before a Notary Public.

22.—This Act shall not go into force until a day to be named by the Lieutenant-Governor by his proclamation.

CHAPTER 25.—AMENDMENTS.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT RESPECTING ASSIGNMENTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF CREDITORS.

[Assented to 25th March, 1886.]

HER Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, enacts as follows:—

1.—Sub-section 2, of Section 3, of The Act respecting Assignments for the Benefit of Creditors, is amended by adding to the said subsection the following words:—

"Nor shall anything herein contained affect any payment of money to a creditor, where such creditor by reason or on account of such payment, has lost or been deprived of, or has in good faith given up, any valid security which he held for the payment of the debt so paid, unless the value of the security is restored to the creditor. Nor shall anything herein contained invalidate a security given to a creditor for a pre-existing debt, where by reason or on account of the giving of the security, an advance in money is made to the debtor by the creditor, in the bona fide belief that the advance will enable the debtor to continue his trade or business, and to pay his debts in full.

2.—Section 9 is amended by adding thereto the following words: "Subject to the lien, if any, of an execution creditor for his costs, where there is but one execution in the sheriff's hands, or to the lien, if any, of the creditor for his costs who has the first execution in the sheriff's hands."

3.—Section 12 of the said Act is amended by adding thereto the following sub-section:—

(3) In provisional judicial districts, and territorial districts, and in the temporary judicial district of Nipissing, the counterpart or copy of the assignment shall be filed in the same office and within the same time respectively, as mortgages and other instruments are directed to be filed in such districts under the provisions 17, 18, and 19, of The Act respecting Mortgages and Sales of Personal Property, and the clerk shall perform the same duties and have the same fees as clerks acting under sub-section 2 of the said Section 12.

4.—Where a new assignee is appointed under the said Act the estate shall forthwith rest in him without a conveyance or transfer. The new assignee may register an affidavit of his appointment in the office in which, under the said Act or under any Act passed during the present session, the original assignment was filed, such an affidavit may also be registered under The Registry Act. The registration of the affidavit under The Registry Act shall have the same effect as the registration of a conveyance.

5.—Section 12 of the said Act is hereby amended by inserting the words, "at least once," after the word "published," in the sixth line thereof, and by striking out the words, "and the publication in each shall be continued therein for at least four times," where the same occur at the end of the said section, and substituting therefore the words, "not less than twice."

6.—Upon the expiration of one month from the first meeting of creditors, or as soon as may be after the expiration of such period, and afterwards from time to time at intervals of not more than three months, the assignee shall prepare and keep constantly accessible to the creditors accounts and statements of his doings as such assignee, and of the position of the estate; and he shall declare dividends of the estate whenever the amount of money in his hands will justify a division thereof, and also whenever he is required by the inspectors.

7.—As soon as a dividend sheet is prepared, notice thereof shall be given to each creditor, inclosing an abstract of receipts and disbursements, shewing what interest has been received by him for moneys in his hands, together with a copy of the dividend sheet, noting thereon the claims objected to, and stating whether any reservation has or has not been made therefor; and after the expiry of eight days from the day of mailing such notice, abstract, and dividend sheet as aforesaid, dividends on all claims not objected to within that period shall be paid.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK, CANADA.

Post Office Savings Banks in Ontario and Quebec are | open daily for the receipt and repayment of deposits, during the ordinary hours of Post Office business.

The direct security of the Dominion is given by the Statute for all deposits made.

Any person may have a deposit account, and may deposit yearly any number of dollars, from $1 up to $300, or more with the permission of the Postmaster-General. Deposits may be made by married women, and deposits so made, or made by women who shall afterwards marry, will be repaid to any such woman.

Deposits for children under 10 yrs of age may be made-Firstly—by a parent or friend as trustee for the child, in which case the deposits can be withdrawn by the trustee until the child shall attain the age of ten year, after which time repayment will be made only on the joint receipts of both trustee and child.

Secondly—In the child's own name—and, if so deposited, repayment will not be made until the child shall attain the age of ten years.

A depositor in any of the Savings Bank Post Offices may continue his deposits at any other of such offices, without notice or change of Pass Book, and can withdraw money at that Savings Bank Office which is most convenient to him.

Each depositor is supplied with a Pass Book, which is to be produced to the Postmaster every time the depositor pays in or withdraws money, and the sums

master receiving or paying the same.

Each depositor's account is kept in the Postmaster-General's office, in Ottawa, and in addition to the Post-master's receipt in the Pass Book, a direct acknowledg-ment from the Postmaster-General for each sum paid in is sent to the depositor. If this acknowledgment does not reach the depositor within ten days from the date of his deposit, he must apply immediately to the Post-master-General, by letter, being careful to give his address, and, if necessary, write again, because the Post-master's receipt or entry in the Pass Book is not sufficient without the further receipt for the money from

Every depositor must send his book once a year, viz., on the anniversary of his first deposit, for comparison with the books of the Department, and for insertion of interest. The book will be returned to him by next mail. At no other time should a depositor suffer his book to be out of his own possession.

When a depositor wishes to withdraw money, he can do so by applying to the Postmaster-General, who will send him by return mail a cheque for the amount, payable at whatever Savings Bank Post Office the depositor may have named in his application.

Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum is allowed on deposits, and the interest is added to the principal on the 30th June in each year.

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTES AND HIGH SCHOOLS.

Each of the High Schools (which form the intermediate link between the Public Schools and the Universities) is managed by a Board of Trustees, appointed jointly by the County and Town Councils. In cities the Trustees are all appointed by the City Councils, except where there is only one school in the County. The head master PROVINCIAL NORMAL AND MODEL SCHOOLS FOR | must be a graduate of a British or Colonial University, and certified as experienced in teaching. Besides fees-local rates must be raised. Every High School with two qualified teachers receives a fixed amount of $400, and also a certain sum on salaries of teachers, general equip-ment and attendance. High Schools which have an average attendance of 60 pupils, may be made Collegiate average attendance of our publis, may be made consistant institutes, and receive additional grant. An extra grant is provided for masters taking certain meteorological observations. Pupils attending these schools are prepared for Matriculation in the Universities. There were 89 High Schools and 18 Collegiate Institutes, with 14,259 pupils, in Ontario in 1886. J. E. Hodgson, M.A., and John Seath, B.A., Inspectors of High Schools.

PUBLIC SCHOOL

Each Township is divided into School Sections of a suitable extent for one School; and in each of these Sections three Trustees are elected to manage its School affairs. BEG to call the attention of the Trade that to the combined efforts of expert Departmental Buyers going to Britain twice a year and a resident buyer and staff there, they are enabled, by watching the home markets thoroughly, to contract and purchase lines of goods not obtainable elsewhere.

They can confidently assert that no house in the Dominion has elaborated and systematized their business to such an extent; the effect and consequence are that year by year the trade constantly and uniformly increases. BENNETT & WRIGHT.

Plumbers, Gas Fitters, Hot Water & Steam Heating Engineers, AND DEALERS IN GAS FIXTURES

72 QUEEN STREET EAST, TORONTO.

Our object is to set forth brief sketches of the various manufacturing and commercial enterprises of this city. Of those which are practically worthy of mention, none are more so than those which confer upon us increased comfort and safety in our homes and public edifices, and of these the above house is entitled to a pre-eminent position.

increased comfort and safety in our homes and public edifices, and of these the above house is entitled to a pre-eminent position.

Steam heating is beyond question the best means of obtaining artificial heat. It is clean, less complicated when constructed upon scientific principles, and ultimately is more economical.

The house of Messrs. BENNETT & WRIGHT are transacting a business indicated by the heading of this sketch. Their premises are located at 72 Queen Street East, and consist of Four foors, each of which occupies a space 120 x 20 feet in dimensions. Here is carried a full and complete stock of gas fixtures of all kinds, plumbers' gas and steam-fitters' supplies, sanitary appliances of the very best description and latest improved character are here available in connection with the mechanical departments of the business, which includes gas fitting and plumbing in all its branches. The specialty of the house, however, is the application of hot water and steam for heating purposes to public buildings and private residences. The reputation which has been acquired by the house, in this regard, is of the very highest nature, and has been gained owing to the perfect satisfaction which has always been the result of all contracts executed. As instances of the superior character of this firm's productions, we will mention that they have been awarded, at the Industrial Exhibition, a silver medal for the best sanitary water closets, bronze medal for but water and steam heating apparatus, and first prize for gas fixtures, plumbing work, plumbers' brass work, and engineers' brass work. The firm have fitted up some of the principal buildings in Toronto and neighborhood with steam heating apparatus, besides a very large number of private residences. Among these the limits of our space only permit the mention of the following, viz.—Manning's Arcade, Collegiate Institute, Dufferin School, The Arcade, Toronto General Hospital, Horticultural Gardens, Boys' Home, Wyeliffe College, Osgoode Hall, Orphans' Home, Baptist Coll the house includes this city and the Province generally, and fifty-five skilled mechanics are given employment in the various departments. In concluding this sketch, we are aware that we do but scant justice to the facilities of this house. Its reputation, however, is well-known and has been achieved by its just merits, and offers by far a stronger commendation than we can presume to offer.

They also show a large assortment of GAS FIXTURES.

For the student, the professional man, the teacher, the school, the family, in fact, for every one who cares to add to his store of knowledge, we consider this splendid work is eminently sulted.—Canada School Journal, Toronto, April, 1884.

There should not be a school in the Dominion, where access cannot readily and constantly be had to it.—The Canada Educational Monthly, Toronto, Oct., 1881.

As a defining, orthographic and pronouncing dictionary, the New Edition of Webster's Unabridged may be regarded as a standard authority in the English Language.—The Educational bridged may be regarded as a standard authority in the English Language.—The Educational Record, Montreal, Aug., 1884.

It has always been considered a standard authority, but its value as such has been vastly in creased by constant revision and the addition of much new matter. It is a work that should be in every library—The Mail, Toronto, February 5, 1886.

It may be regarded as the one final authority, safely to be relied on.—The Week, Toronto, 1884. It has long since established its claim, past the power of even envy to dispute, to a place in the very highest ranks of such publications. Those who have given it the most careful consideration will be the most enthusiastic in its praise.—The Globe, Toronto, July, 1884.

The best and most neeful Dictionary of the English language ever published.—London Times.

The best and most useful Dictionary of the English language ever published.—London Times.

In journalistic work I have long kept close company with Webster's Unabridged, and regard its the one great Dictionary of the English language.—J. E. B. McCready, Esq., Editor Daily Telegraph, St. John, N. B., July, 1885.

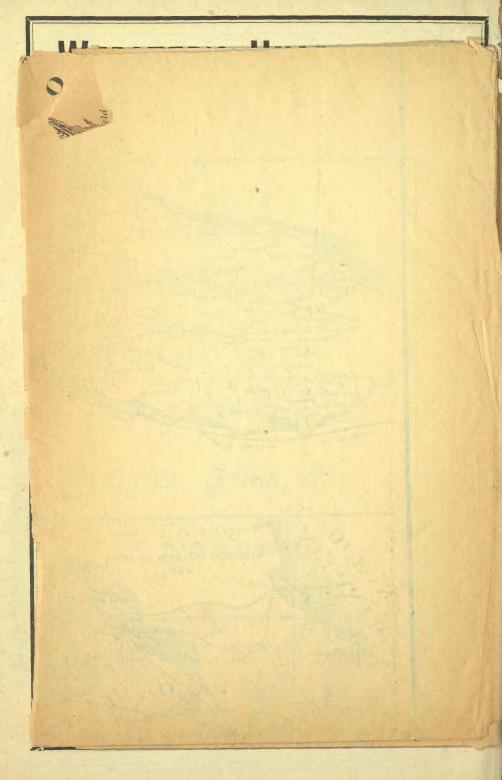

I know of no other Dictionary which places within easy reach of the ordinary purse, such a bounty of useful and really necessary information, and which is at the same time so complete and thorough an exposition of our noble language.—Hon. Explanation of the Articles in the Calendar.

These pages are calculated for Toronto and Quebec, and for ordinary purposes will serve with sufficient accuracy for every city in the Dominion of Canada.

MOON'S PHASES.—This Table gives the times (standard 75th meridian) when the Moon passes the geocentric longtudes of 0°, 90°, 180°, and 270° east of the sun. It gives also the times of her greatest and least distance from the earth.

TWILIGHT .- In this Table are given the standard times at which twilight begins in the morning and ends in the evening, i.e., the times when the Sun's centre is 18? below the horizon.*

Note. -Standard times are given in all columns headed Toronto or Quebec. In calculating, the mean time at these places has been taken at Toronto as 17m. 34s. slower, and at Quebec as 14m. faster than standard.

GREATEST ELONGATION OF THE POLE STAR .- This column gives the greatest azimuth of the Pole Star east or west from the meridian as observed at a place in latitude 45°. When the greatest elongation corresponding to any other latitude is required, the number given in the column should be corrected by means of the following Table.

Latitude	420	43°	440	450	460	470	480	490	50°
1st Correction for Degrees	-5'18"	-3' 37"	-1'51"	0' 00"	+1'57"	+ 4'1"	+6'12"	+8'30"	+10'55"
2nd Correction for each minute of latitude	+ 1".7	+ 1".8	+ 1".9	+ 2".0	+ 2".1	+ 2".2	+ 2".3	+ 2".4	+ 2".6

The 1st correction for the degrees of latitude is to be subtracted from the greatest elongation given in the calendar or added to it, according as the degrees of latitude are less or greater than 45°.

The 2nd correction, which is always additive, is found by multiplying the number given in the third line of the Table by the number of minutes in the latitude.

Thus for latitude 43° 20′...1st correction =
$$-3'37''$$
 2nd correction + $1.8 \times 20 = +0'36''$ " $47° 40′...$ " = $+4'$ 1" " $+2.2 \times 40 = +1'28''$ " " $+2.0 \times 10 = +0'20''$ " " $+2.0 \times 10 = +0'20''$

THE PLANETS.—The local mean times of rising and setting of the five chief planets are calculated for Toronto, and are corrected for refraction. The times of cuimination, although computed for the meridian of Totonto, will serve approximately for the whole of Canada. The meridian zenith distances, being designed merely to aid in finding the planets, have been given only to the nearest tenth of a degree, as seen from the latitude of 45°.

The times of the Sun's Rising and Setting* are given for the upper limb, and are corrected for refraction for Toronto and Quebec.

The standard times both for the rising and setting of the Moon's centre are given for every day for Toronto and Quebec.

The column, Sun on Meridian, gives the time that a watch keeping local mean time should show when the shadow of a sun dial is on the noon mark.

MOON'S AGE. -This column shows to the nearest tenth of a day the Moon's age at Toronto mean noon.

The column, Upper Transit of Pole Star, shows for every day the mean time at which the Pole Star makes its upper transit across the meridian of longitude 4h. 46m. W. It passes the meridian in the morning from April 10 to October 9. It passes the meridian twice on October 10: and in the afternoon during the rest of the year.

The time at which the lower transit of the Pole Star occurs may be found by adding 11h. 58m. 2s. to the time of the preceding upper transit.

The six last columns will serve with sufficient accuracy for the whole of Canada.

^{*} Although these times are calculated for Toronto and Quebec only, the standard times at other places differing not much in latitude from one of these places may be obtained with sufficient accuracy for ordinary purposes, by adding four minutes for every degree west of Toronto or Quebec, and subtracting four minutes for every degree east of Toronto or Quebec.

From the time of the upper transit of the Pole Star may be found the time of its greatest western or eastern elongation, by adding or subtracting the constants given in the annexed Table.

Latitude	h m s	43 h m s h	44° m s	45° h m s	46° h m s	h m s	h m s	49° h ni s	50° h m s
Constant		5 54 14 5 —1.7

Star Table.

From the times of the upper transit of the Pole Star may be derived, with the aid of the following Table, the times of culmination, and of the rising and setting of the principal fixed stars, as seen from the parallel of 45° north latitude.

To ascertain when any star found in the following Table will be on the meridian, add the number in the left-hand column of figures to the preceding meridian transit of the pole star given in the calendar. To find the time of rising of a star, subtract the number opposite to it in the right-hand column of figures from the time of its meridian passage. For the setting of a star, add the same number to the time of its meridian passage. Those stars marked (...) revolve in a circle of perpetual apparition, and do not rise or set at places in and to the north of latitude 45°.

THE YEAR.

The length of the year is strictly expressed by the space of time required for the revolution of the earth round the sum—namely, 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, 49 seconds, and 7 tenths of a second, for to such a nicety has this time been ascertained. But for convenience in reckoning, it has been found necessary to make the year terminate with a day instead of a fraction of one, lumping the fractions together so as to make up a day among themselves. About forty-five years before Christ, Julius Cæsar, having, by the help of Sosigenes, an Alexandrian philosopher, came to a tolerably clear understanding of the length of the year, decreed that every fourth year should be held to consist of 366 days, for the purpose of absorbing the odd hours. The arrangement he dictated was a rather clumsy one. A day in February, the sixth before the calends of March (sextilis), was to be repeated in that fourth year; and each fourth year was thus to be bissextile. It was as if we were to reckon the 23rd of February twice over. Seeing that, in reality, a day every fourth year is too much by II minutes, 10 seconds, and 3 tenths of a second, it inevitably followed that the beginning of the year moved onward ahead of the point at which it was in the days of Cæsar; in other words, the natural time fell behind the reckoning. From the time of the Council of Nice, in 325, when the vernal equinox fell correctly on the 21st of March, Pope Gregory found in 1552 that there now the vernal equinox fell on the 11th of March. To correct the past error, he decreed that the 5th of October that year should be reckoned as the 15th, and, to keep the year right in future, the overplus being 18 hours, 37 minutes and 10 seconds in a century, he ordered that every centurial year that could not be divided by 4 (1700, 1800, 1900, 2100, 2200, &c.) should not be bissextile, as it otherwise would be; thus, in short, dropping the extra day three times every four hundred years. The Gregorian style, as it was called, readily obtained sway in Catholic, but not in Protestant countries. It was not adopted in Britain till the year 1752, by which time the discrepancy between the Julian and Gregorian periods amounted to eleven days. An Act of Parliament was passed, dictating that the 3rd of September that year should be reckoned the 14th, and that three of every four of the centurial years should, as in Pope Gregory's arrangement, not be bissextile or leap years. It has consequently arisen—1800 not having been a leap-year—that the new and old styles now differ by twelve days, our first of January being equivalent to the 13th old style. In Russia, alone, of all Christian countries, is the old style retained; wherefore it becomes necessary for one writing in that country to any foreign correspondent, to set down his date thus:

March, or 7th October; or, it may be, 28th December, 1880.

CENSUS OF MANITOBA.

The following figures taken from the Census of Manitoba are interesting as showing the great progress made by the Province from 1881 to 1886. This is all the more gratifying when it is remembered that since the year 1882 a number of causes have conspired to retard settlement; such as a succession of poor crops, early frosts, and the North-West rebellion of 1885.

P. B., to which the limit is 5 lbs.) which exceeds in weight the limit of 2 lbs. 3 oz.

Eye-glasses and spectacles may be sent by mail when properly put up and prepaid by Parcel Post.

PARCEL POST WITH THE UNITED KINGDOM.

An arrangement has been entered into with the Post Office of the United Kingdom for a Parcel Post, under which closed Parcels not exceeding 3 lbs. in weight may be posted in the United Kingdom, when addressed for delivery at certain Post Offices in Canada, and may in like manner be posted at those Canadian Post Offices for destinations on the United Kingdom.

The Parcels exchanged with the United Kingdom will pass exclusively in the Weekly Mails conveyed by the Canadian Steamers to and from the St. Lawrence in Summer and Halifax in Winter, and such Parcels cannot be sent via New York.

The Parcel Post with the United Kingdom will be geverned by the following regulations:-

- 1. A Pareel must not exceed 3 lbs. in weight.
- 2. The dimensions of a Parcel must not exceed 2 feet in length by 1 foot in width or depth.
- 3. A Parcel must not contain any explosive, combustible, or dangerous articles, nor any article of a perishable or fragile character, nor liquids or matters likely to injure other Parcels or mail transmissions.
- 4. All Parcels must be securely and substantially paeked and closed.
- 5. Each Parcel must be plainly directed, and such direction must include the name and full address of the person for whom the Parcel is intended.
- 6. For each Parcel the sender must fill up a Customs Declaration. On this form the sender will supply an accurate statement of the contents and value of the Parcel, also the address thereof, with signature and place of abode of the sender. The Customs Declaration must be seeurely affixed by mucilage or paste to the Parcel to which it relates.

As Parcels from the United Kingdom will be liable to Canadian Customs duties, and under existing regulations Canadian Customs acties, and under exacting regularity must be examined for the purpose by an Officer of the Customs in the presence of the persons addressed, it has been necessary in commencing this Parcel Post with the United Kingdom, to limit its operation for the present in Canada to Parcels addressed to or posted at places where Officers of the Customs are stationed.

For the purposes of the Parcel Post the Dominion is divided into 4 sections of about 1,000 miles each, from East to West, on the line from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to Victoria, British Columbia, thus:—

PARCEL POST CHARGE.

Sections.	Rate per lb or fraction of a lb.
A.—Maritime Provinces and Quebec B.—Ontario C.—Manitoba and N. W. Territories D.—British Columbia	30 ets. 35 " 40 " 45 "

Prepayment by postage stamp is required, but when a Parcel is posted in the United Kingdom for either of the sections B, C, or D, and by inadvertence prepaid at a lower rate than that applicable to the particular section addressed, the Parcel will come to Canada, liable te collection by the Canada Post Office on delivery, of the deficient postage, and it will moreover be optional with the Canada Post Office to impose a fine in addition.

A SYMPOSIUM ON

COMMERCIAL UNION BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA.

AFFIRMATIVE-ERASTUS WIMAN, ESQ.

been so much discussed in the Dominion of Canada within the past year as the proposal of a Commercial Union between the United States and Canada. In Ontario, especially, the subject has occupied a place more prominently in the press, and among the people, than any other topic; and while in other Provinces the matter has not been so actively promoted in the shape of public meetings, resolutions, or organization, etc., nevertheless, the subject has been to a greater or less extent before the people, both in the press and in private discussion. The question has the merit up to the period of this writing of being comparatively free from party bias. The men who have been most active in promoting the discussion, either have not been pronounced politicians, or where prominent party men have discussed the question, they have been adherents of either one or the other of the great political parties that divide the Dominion. In the country localities this has especially been the case; and where political leaders have not interfered, and where the people, themselves, have been allowed to choose their own path, the party lines have been less observed than almost ever before in the discussion of a semi-political subject. Tories and Liberals have ranged themselves side by side in favor of the proposition in the newspapers and in public meetings; while in the press and elsewhere, the discussion has been carried on against it with equal vigor by representatives of both parties. In view, therefore, of the wide-spread interest attaching to this movement, and its non-partisan character, one of its most active advocates has been asked to contribute to these pages the arguments in favor of the proposal, which he has endeavored to do as follows :-

Commercial Union between the United States and Canada is a singularly simple proposal, but with consequences of the most far-reaching character. Its simplicity consists in the proposition that there should be no Customhouses between the two countries, but that trade between them should be just as free as the trade between the States themselves, or between the Provinces themselves. At present an imaginary line of nearly 4,000 miles in extent, exists right through the middle of the Continent, over which products or merchandise of one country cannot come or go to the other without the intervention of the Government, and the exaction of a high rate of duty. The operation of this tariff of duties has a familiar illustration in the case of a farmer who has a thousand bushels of barley He can only find a market for this product in the United States, but before it

It is safe to say that no single question has | enters that country a charge of $100 is made by the United States Government in the shape of a duty of 10 cents per bushel. The farmer in the United States gets the same price and pays no duty, and hence is $150 better off than the farmer who grew the barley in Canada If, with the money received from the barley, the Canadian farmer buys a thousand bushels of corn, which he cannot grow to advantage in many parts of Canada, and which he can use to advantage in feeding his pigs, his poultry, or his stock, he has to pay $750 to the Canadian Government for the admission of the corn into the Dominion. Whether the Canadian farmer pays both duties or not in this case matters not, for he himself has decided that if he goes again to the United States with his pigs, fattened by the corn, and pays a heavy duty for the admission of the pork, and buys with what remains merchandise in the shape of clothes for himself or dresses for his wife, and pays a heavy duty to the Canadian Government on these goods as he returns home, he will have but little left in the shape of principal, much less of profit, if he continues in this line of business. In other words, the operations of the two beneficient Governments, which guard this imaginary line are to rob him of the fruits of his toil, and to entirely discourage him in his attempts to trade with his rich and prosperous neighbor. The same condition applies to everything the farmer has to sell, except his eggs, his poultry, and his fruit. These being admitted free into the United States, serve to illustrate the other side of the question, and show how advantageous is the operation of an open market for the Canadian farmer. Eggs, formerly dutiable, but now free of duty, from being one of the most insignificant products, have become one of the most important, because of their freedom of admission to the United States. The enterprise of egg mer-chants, mostly Americans, or employed by them throughout the Dominion in gathering in eggs from all quarters, has been stimulated by the good prices and the profits to be realized in the United States. The yearly export of eggs has, therefore, risen to no less than four-teen millions of dozen, and the money realized in one year by Canadian farmers for this comparatively trifling article, foots up to over $1,800,000. This sum approaches the amount realized from the total export of manufactures, and the point is made, which the farmer greatly appreciates, that the unobtrusive, unprotected hen has done quite as much for the country as the pampered, protected manufacturer, to support whom the farmer is heavily Realizing the contiguity of Canada to the great consumptive markets at the manufacturing centres of the United States; and the growth, right on the long border-line of the Dominion, of the greatest money-making, money-spending aggregation of humanity under the sun, is it any wonder that there is the strongest desire on the part of the Canadian farmer to have free access to this market for his products? To be shut out from this market is to be shut out from the best opportunity he will ever have for making money. It is true the farmer has a free market in Great Britain, and in neighboring provinces. But Great Britain is 3,000 miles away, and needs only three or four out of a dozen products which the farmer can profitably grow, and which, being furnished by all the world beside, realizes so small a price as to render it impossible that profit should be made on these products, As to the demand from the neighboring province, they all grow very much the same thing; and if they do not are too remote to purchase what the farmer has to sell. With abundant power to produce, unlimited spaces, now waste, ready to be covered with crops if profitable; with a strong soil, great climatic advantages, the best breeds and varieties of animals; ample supplies of implements, and above all, a thrifty, industrious and economical people, there is no reason why the largest success should not be achieved by the Canadian farmer, if the vast market on his border is only freely opened to him. To accomplish this most desirable result is the one object sought by Commercial Union. With that object in view, plainly set forth before the farmers of the Dominion, it is not surprising that the movement has been popular among them, and that there is a settled determination that if it can be honorably achieved and consistent with loyalty to British institutions, it is the one thing above all others that they desire.

When it is recalled that upon the farmer, and upon the farmer alone, depends the prosperity of nine-tenths of all other interests, it is clear that what benefits him is of enormous importance to the rest of the community. No one is better calculated than himself to judge to what extent these benefits may come from an open market among the neighboring people for a great variety of products which he now grows in limited quantities, regulated by the home market, to which alone he has access, thus, if in addition to a free and enlarged demand for eggs, poultry and fruit, he could sell without double taxation, increased quantities of butter, cheese, potatoes and other root crops; lambs, sheep, wool, oats, barley, horses and all grades of cattle, he would be far less dependent on wheat and its far away Liverpool market, competed for by all the world, and yielding no profit whatever. country under the sun can grow to greater advantage the products above enumerated; no aggregation of people are by thrift, industry and skill better qualified to produce them at a minimum of cost, than the tarmers of Canada. While, on the other hand, in all the world there is to be found no better market for these very products than is afforded in the chief centres of population in the United States, so readily and so easily and cheaply reached from Canada. This conjunction of affairs, coupled with the struggle which the Canadian farmer has had to endure, from increased taxation. limited or distant markets, heavy mortgage and store indebtedness, and a general depression in agricultural circles, leads him to look upon Commercial Union with the United States with great favor, as it promises him about the only hope that brightens his prospect. With this conviction settled and determined upon in the minds of the vast mass of the farmers of Canada, politicians may well take Commercial Union into account as a factor of consequence. For as the farmers, by a great majority, hold the key to the political condition of affairs, their wishes and their interests must be paramount among their representatives, especially when the object to be accomplished for their lasting benefit has no political significance, except such as political leaders themselves unwisely impart to it.

But aside from the interests of farmers and the creation of a direct market for a greater variety of products, there are numerous other considerations urged by the advocates of Commercial Union in its behalf. Perhaps the next most important claim for it is, that by an open and free market in the United States, a great development would follow in numerous natural products which are now yielding a very meagre return. Thus, in iron, copper, nickel, lead, coal, and other minerals the development is extremely slow, notwithstanding the fact that Canada is exceedingly rich in all these most important products. In the article of iron the increase in its production, manufacture, and consumption on this continent is almost phenomenal; yet Canada, with miles and miles of the best qualities of ore, gets no benefit what-While on the southern shores of Lake Superior, in the United States, there is the greatest activity, and the expenditure of millions and millions of dollars yearly; on the northern shores of the same great body of water, within the Dominion of Canada, not a dollar is being expended. While in the southern states, as in Alabama, Tennessee, and elsewhere, development in iron mines within the past five years has been enormous; in the north, in Canada, the only sign of change in this regard has been that every farmer and every mechanic has had a fresh increase in his taxation for the iron that he uses. should the low grade ores of the south, loaded with phosphorus, have development, and the high grade, bessemer steel ores of Canada, almost free from phosphorus, lay silent, and dormant, and dead? Simply because in Canada there is not a market large enough to encourage the proper development of her vast mineral deposits. Simply because the great market to the south is as closely sealed to her as if it were ten thousand miles away. When one recalls the marvellous combinations of materials favorable to iron development in Nova Scotia; the enormous deposits in the vicinity of Ottawa, in Quebec; the miles and miles of splendid ore along the valley of the Trent; the riches on the lines of the Central Ontario Railway, the Kingston and Pembroke, and the vast mineral wealth made accessible by the opening up of the Canadian Pacific, in the northern regions of Ontario and Algoma, it seems as if the one thing needful now is to break down the barriers that shut out all these great resources from their natural market, and give free access to the people whose wealth, enterprise, and vast absorptive power have been provided by Providence for the full development of these great natural riches. by Commercial Union between Canada and the United States, the mineral resources of the northern half of the continent should be developed with anything like the rapidity that has prevailed in the southern half, the whole commercial aspect of Canada would be changed. Not only would a great home market for farmers' products be thereby created, but the mechanic, the manufacturer, the merchant, the banker, the forwarder, the railways, and every other interest would be benefited. development of resources, other than that of the farmer and the manufacturer solely dependent upon him, would follow in time the opening up of mines, the employment of large bodies of miners, the growth of manufactures for the supply of machinery, and other needs; the possible erection of manufactures of the raw material developed, and the thousand and one possibilities growing out of greatly enlarged opportunities, resulting from development of natural wealth and large investment of capital on the one hand, and an open market among a great and prosperous nation for these products, on the other.

Space prevents further allusion to other advantages which Commercial Unionists claim would flow from the realization of their proposal. Those who are most active in promoting the scheme maintain that it would completely remove all desire for annexation; and that British connection would by this means be perpetuated much more firmly than under existing conditions. It is argued that there is no attraction whatever in annexation except such as the material advantage furnishes; and that inasmuch as all the material advantages of a connection with the United States would be obtained under Commercial Union, the only argument in behalf of a political union would be extinguished. The reciprocity treaty which was in operation for twelve years yielded, it is claimed, enormous advantages to Canada. Commercial Union, it is claimed, is but an extension of the principles underlying that treaty, and it is urged if during that period there was little or no talk of annexation, there need be no expectation that a sentiment in its behalf would be created by a repetition and an extension of its principles. It is claimed that prior to the enforcement of this treaty, or from 1849 to 1854, there was a strong annexation sentiment; and that in recent years, since the repeal of that treaty, there has been a steady growth in numbers, influence, and boldness of the annexation party. It is claimed that all this would disappear, if no argument in behalf of a political union could be adduced, and especially if prosperity, and enlarged area of trade, and great natural development followed the adoption of Commercial Union.

The discrimination against English goods by exacting a heavy rate of duty, and the free admission of American goods, it is urged is disloyal to England. It is shown, however, that inasmuch as the total imports from Eugland are about forty millions, the profit to the English manufacturer thereon being about ten per cent., yields four millions. It is nrged that supposing English importations were cut down one-half, the loss to English manufacturers would be only two millions a year, a sum regarded as a mere bagatelle, compared with the advantages which Canada would obtain by a free market in the United States, and the free admission of her goods. The question is not inaptly asked,—Is Canada to forever remain an undeveloped continent, without access to the vast markets at her border, for the mere sake of furnishing two millions a year of profit to individuals who have no possible interest beyond making money out of her disability? It is further urged, that inasmuch as nearly all the money used building the railways and public works; all the governmental and mortgage indebtedness of Canada, is supplied by England, that the owners of this money would be immensely benefited by the improved condition of affairs in Canada; that the railways would earn more, that the farmers would be better able to pay interest, and that every liability of the country would be immensely improved in value by the prosperity that would follow Commercial Union; and that in this sense English interests would So that the prosperity greatly advance. which it is claimed would follow to Canada by Commercial Union would affect advantageously a class of British parties interested in Canada, as would greatly exceed the manufacturers adversely affected.

The details of the plan of Commercial Union between the United States and Canada, so far as they have been developed in public speeches and prints, are as yet meagre, they imply that there being a common or uniform tariff levied throughout the continent on imported goods, and excise duties of precisely the same height exacted, that a common purse should hold the proceeds of both these sources of revenue. That at the end of each year a division of these proceeds should take place to each Country, in propertion to population, it is maintained that this sum would yield to Canada as large a revenue as she now possesses, and if there should be any deficiency it should be collected by taxes of some other character. The general principle upon which this scheme of revenue is urged is that whatever is sufficient to pay for the expenses of Government in the United States, ought to be sufficient to pay for the expenses of Government in Canada. That the bargain would be very advantageous to Canada because the extravagance of people in the United States, is notably larger than that of people in Canada; while the growth of population in Canada, from the stimulant that enlarged markets and natural development, would give, ought to make the arrangement an extremely favorable one for the Dominion.

The whole subject, however, is in a very crude condition; and the foregoing attempt to give a sketch of its salient points is submitted with considerable hesitation and doubt, it being difficult to apprehend all the bearings of the matter, because of the magnitude and many-sided nature of the question.

NEGATIVE--H. E. CLARKE, M.P.P.

The questio of a Co nmercia Union with the United States has been much discussed during the year, and threatens to occupy a prominent place in the discussions of the future. It has met with considerable support from the Farmers Institutes in some parts of Ontario, and generally with the opposition of the mercantile, the manufacturing, and the trading classes in all parts of the country.

So far it can scarcely be said to have come within the reg on of practical politics because, though pressed, in some quarters, with an urgency not easily understood, and with an ability worthy of a better and more patriotic cause, it has failed to gain a hold upon the people. No party cares to adopt it. No leader is bold enough to commit himself to its inevitable result and declare for annexation naked or veiled. But just outside the political net, the loose fish of party are nibbling at the bait as if it might some day serve a useful purpose, and as their leaders from a distance look on with "a smile that is child-like and bland," it requires but little skill in prophecy to predict, that at no distant day, whether for good or for ill, the question is destined to play a considerable part not only in determining the fate of parties, but in determining the future condition of the country.

In view of these facts an examination of the question will not be without interest and it is proposed in this article to state with fairness and strict impartiality the arguments that can be advanced in opposition to the proposed union. In doing this it will be necessary to glance at the main features of the policy as it affects the people in their agricultural pursuits, in their manufacturing industries, in their trade and commerce, as well as in their political relationships as Canadians and as members of the great British Empire.

COMMERCIAL UNION A MENACE TO FARMERS.

Finding no support from the mercantile and manufacturing interests of the country, the advocates of Commercial Union direct their attention chiefly to the farmers, and hope by appealing to class interests, to enlist the sympathies of a large and influential body of men in favor of the movement. The most astounding statem nts are made as to the effects that will follow upon a repeal of the present tariff. The people of the United States re represented as eagerly anxious to spend an untold wealth of money in becoming the possessors of the farm products of Canada. So anxious are they to secure these products that they are willing to pay fabulous sums for their possession-two dollars a pair for chickens and a corresponding advance on everything the Canadian farmer can raise. High prices are no object with such millionaries, only break down the tariff and let them have Canadian goods, that is all they want. What care they for the price so long as they can have that which they so much desire? They are waiting by the million, by the tens of millions to turn the stream of their riches into the pockets of the Canadian farmer. It is a pity that arguments such as these should be permitted to insult the intelligence of the Canadian people, but a thousand times more pitiful that owing to the favor with which they have been received in some quarters, it should be necessary to waste a moment of time in calling attention to their ridiculous assumptions.

Surely the most ignorant farm boy that ever took up an axe in the backwoods of Canada, will be quick to see at a glance, that if the Americans are burning with a desire to possess our goods, and care nothing for the price, then they will not be hindered in their tastes or appetite by the paltry pittance collected at the border by way of Customs dues. The utter dishonesty of all such arguments be-comes apparent, when it is remembered that the Americans are pre-eminently an agricultural people, and that from the product of the farm they raise for exportation, more than is raised by Canadian farmers for export and for home consumption both put together. carefully concealed by the advocates of Commercial Union, when addressing the farmers of Canada, but it is not so concealed when they address themselves to the farmers of the United States. No one doubts that the American farmer would be only too glad to find a Canadian market for the surplus product of his farm, and it is not to be wondered at that American orators from Ohio and New York should use their best talents in the effort to remove the tariff that bars their product out of Canada. But that Canadians, and especially Canadian farmers, should lend themselves to such insidious efforts, and invite such dangerous competition, is a something altogether beyond the comprehension of ordinary intelligence. Many, no doubt, are led away by the unblushing assertions of the wild theorists, who assume that Commercial Union will open up to the farmers of Canada an immense market for all their products, and who paint in glowing colors a picture of the wealth that may be secured by throwing down all the barriers of trade, and gaining access to a market of fifty millions of people. market of fifty millions is the great theme of the Commercial Unionist, when addressing the farmers of Canada. But he never tells the farmer that the fifty millions will become competitors as well as consumers, and that while the five millions of Canadians are looking for a market in the United States for their surplus product, fifty millions of Americans will be over running Canada with the surplus product of the United States.

It will be necessary in this connection to look for a moment at the enormous value of the trade controlled by the agricultural classes in Canada, then, by looking at the markets upon which they must rely for the consumption of their goods, it will be seen, that either through ignorance, or of a set purpose, an effort is being made to get the farmers of Canada to throw open their best market to their most dangerous competitors.

THE ANNUAL VALUE OF ALL FARM PRO-DUCTS in Canada is estimated in round numbers at $400,000,000. Where does the farmer find his market for this enormous yield? Who are his best customers? These are vital questions to the farmer, and the answer, taken from the trade and navigation returns for 1886, is, perhaps, the best answer that can be given to the assertions of those who claim that Commercial Union will better the condition of the Canadian farmer. Facts, they say, are stubborn things and figures are sometimes just as stubborn as facts. Let us examine a few figures bearing on the question, and see if the farmer in an effort to secure a doubtful trade of inconsiderable amount does not risk the loss of the only trade, which to him is of any real value. Who are his best customers? Undoubtedly, those who buy most of his produce. Where are they to be found? Here is the answer from the official returns of 1886 :--

Exports of all animals and all farm products

To the	Unite	ed Stat	es	 	 $ 15,500,000
To Gre
To all
CONSU	MED in	CANA	DA	 	 360,000,000

 fully realize that their best customer is at their own doors, that they have only to hand their produce over the fence. The cities, towns and villages everywhere springing up as manufacturing industries increase, these are what he must rely upon for the consumption of his goods, and they help him to consume fully nine-tenths of all he can raise on his farm. His surplus stock for which he must find a foreign market amounts in value to only $40.000.000.

This the most important feature of the whole case seems to be altogether over-looked as the question of Commercial Union is discussed, that nine-tenths of the produce of Canada is required to meet the wants of the Canadian people, and that as population increases by the spread of manufacturing industries, the day is not far distant when it will tax the best energies of Canadian farmers to produce enough for home consumption. And yet this is what should constantly be kept in view. At present over and above what is required for the home market the farmer has a surplus of $40,000,000. How is he to dispose of this? The figures given above show that Great Britain consumes $22,000,000; the United States $15,500,000 and all other countries $2,500,000. Next to Canada, Great Britain offers to the farmer the best market, and yet the American orators and Americanized writers, try to persuade him to discriminate against England and close that market for the sake of the market he finds in the United States. Now the question is, what risk will the Canadian farmer run in seeking to secure an American market for the whole of his surplus product, if he prefers that market before all others? To answer the question it will be necessary to present some figures giving the productive capacity of the American farmer, as it is with him that the Canadian farmer must compete if he wants to gain a larger access to the American market.

The annual value of all farm produce in the United States is variously estimated at from $2,500,000,000 to double that amount, the gross product is of little importance as it is with the surplus product we have more particularly to do, and that surplus we have from the official records. The annual export of animals and farm products from the United States amounts in round numbers to $550,000,000. So that after supplying the home market the surplus product for which the American farmer must find a foreign market, and which must come into competition with the Canadian farmers surplus, not only equals that surplus, but actually exceeds by $150,000,000 all that is produced by the Canadian farmer whether for home consumption or foreign sale.

Barred out of the Canadian market by the tariff against which all the assaults of the Commercial Unionists are hurled, the American farmer has to go elsewhere to find a market for this surplus of $550,000,000. Take down the tariff wall and he would find at his doors a Canadian market consuming an annual product of $360,000,000 and promising at no distant day to consume much more. The struggle is for the possession of this market, which at present is secured to the Canadian farmer by the tariff which he is so earnestly urged to remove. Now the question is, which runs the greatest risk, the Canadian taking down his tariff wall and opening his market to a surplus farm product of $550,000,000 or the American removing his wall and opening his market to a surplus farm product of $40,000,000.

The mere statement of the question ought to satisfy any Canadian farmer of the tremendous danger he incurs by tampering with the question of Commercial Union. The movement in favor of this nuion will not succeed, and does not deserve to succeed. Its appeals to the farmers are not honest. All the dangers that lie hidden in the policy are carefully concealed, while the advantages are exaggerated where they are not invented. Reference is frequently made to the prosperity of the farmer under the last treaty of reciprocity, and no one denies that a well considered treaty could be made mutually advantageous to both countries, but even here there is a want of candour and a partial concealment of the truth for it must be borne in mind that the prosperity of the period covered by the last treaty of reciprocity, was not due to the treaty alone, but to other causes co-incident with it in point of time. The enormous outlay on the great public works of that day-the construction of the Grand Trunk and Great Western railways -would be sufficient to account for the abnormally high prices which prevailed. The outbreak of the Crimean War, the Indian Mutiny, the rebellion of the Southern States any one of these would have a tendency to enhance the value of anything we had for sale and to enrich the people of Canada had there been no reciprocity treaty in existence. The stagnation of trade in 1857 following immediately on the completion of the great public works spoken of above, and the termination of the Crimean War and Indian Mutiny shows how little reliance can be placed in reciprocity treaties aloue for the prosperity of a people.

No, our Canadian farmers are not dependent upon any treaty of reciprocity with their neighbors. As a class they have done well and are doing well. A body of men that have a thousand millions of dollars invested in farm lands and stocks is not a body that can be called poor, and yet we have impudent men going about the country holding meetings, making speeches and publishing to the world that the Canadian farmer is miserable and wretched and poor and blind and naked. It will be for the farmers when they get the opportunity to hurl the falsehood back in their teeth.

COMMERCIAL UNION A STAB AT NATIVE INDUSTRY.

It is admitted with something of a brutal frankness on the part of Commercial Unionists of our manufacturing industries, while it would utterly destroy some of them. The admission has a terrible significance when it is considered that about one-fourth of the population of the Dominion is dependent on these industries for their daily bread, that the capital imperilled is estimated at $200,000,000. and that the wealth created by this investment of capital is somewhere in the neighborhood of $500,000,000 a year. Terrible as well to the farmer as to the mechanic, seeing that the destruction of these industries is the destruction of the farmers best market for the product of his field. And, undoubtedly, all of these interests would be placed in deadly peril, if brought into unrestricted competition with the larger capital, the costlier plant, and the more thorough division of labor that is to be found in the immense establishments that have been built up by the accumulated wealth of the American people. It may suit the philosophical theorist to sneer at the Canadian mechanic, and say that if under the condition of things proposed, Canadian manufacturers cannot compete with their more powerful neighbors, then that they ought to make way for the invaders, and allow them to have undisturbed possession of the Canadian But this is not the language of market. patriotism, nor is it the way to build up a nation or a people. No nation c n exist nation or a people. without its manufacturing industries, and as a rule these only grow with the growth of the State, keeping pace with the advancing wants of the people. While they are in their infancy, it would be unreasonable and unjust to ask, that before they had time to develop their strength they should be brought into competition with the more powerful organiza-tions of a stronger State. Hence, the protec-tion they find in the tariff laws of all civilized nations. Canada in this particular has only followed in the footsteps of the wise. It does not follow as Commercial Unionists affirm, that Canadian prices are higher, or that the consumer pays more for his goods, while the tariff wall protects the manufacturer from the powerful combinations of a foreign country. The competition of Canadians with Canadians must always regulate the market, and keep prices at the lowest figure. So true is this, that as a matter of fact it is known, that in nearly every staple article of manufacture, prices are lower to-day than when a protective tariff was introduced t give encouragement to native industries. Canada has greatly prospered under the wise encouragement given to develope her resources, and the benefit has not been confined to any one particular class, it extends to every class in the community. The people are benefited, because they are getting their goods at a cheaper rate. The manufacturers are benefited, because the protection gives Canada to the Canadians, and there is market enough here to encourage enterprise. The mechanics are benefited, bethat the measure would seriously cripple most cause the establishment of industries in our midst gives them constant employment. Tradesmen reap the benefit, because mechanics must be fed and clothed, and for this purpose their money is freely spent among the different trades. Wholesale merchants are benefited, because they supply the tradesmen with the goods retailed to the mechanic. whole Province, the whole Dominion is benefited, because we keep our people and our wealth in our own midst, and do not send them to add to the strength and wealth of a foreign country. This is the only policy that will build up a people, and fit them for a place in the rank of nations, and this is the position to which we aspire. Canada is a country of vast extent and unlimited resources, the value of which her people are just Much has been said beginning to realize. about her debt, and the fashion of annexationists is to harp upon the increase since Confederation. It is perfectly true that the debt of Canada has increased since Confedera-It has increased enormously. So has Canada increased since Confederation. Canada has increased enormously. Then we were four Provinces, with a total area of three hundred thousand square miles. Now we are seven Provinces and four territories, with a total area of three millions of square miles, and for every dollar of debt, Canada can show more than an equivalent asset. Her people have taxed themselves freely to enable her to develop her vast resources, spending immense sums on canals, railways and other public improvements. Now, when the completion of our great National highway is opening up to us every day new markets for the products of our industries, and the world stands astonished at Canadian enterprise, we do not propose to take a backward step, either at the bidding of false friend or open foe, and yield to our neighbors the fruit of our sacrifices just when it is ready to be plucked.

COMMERCIAL UNION ANNEXATION IN DISGUISE.

In matters of great political moment, it is not wise to accept as gospel every doctrine propounded from our platforms by strangers and foreigners, whether imported for the purpose, or coming themselves on a voluntary pilgrimage. It will be wiser to be guided by the common sense hat influences us in the every day occurrences of ordinary life. new teacher presents himself, our first question will be as to his credentials. Who is he? By whose authority does he come? How does he propose to accomplish his purpose? These, or like questions will naturally occur to the mind as we listen to his arguments, and before his teaching is allowed to have weight, wise men will have to be satisfied that his object is high, or holy, or patriotic, or good, according to the doctrine he undertakes to teach. Now, apply the test to the question of Commercial Union, and see what the result will be. Who are the new creed? And what is apostles of the new creed? And what is their mission? Ten years ago all the arguments that are now doing duty in favor of Commercial Un on, we re advanced to prove that "Canadian nationality being a lost cause, the ultimate union of Canada with the United States appears now to be morally certain."

There stands the declaration of the chief apostle of the new creed, there is no pretence about it, no beating about the bush, it is annexation pure and simple. That was his teaching when he wrote the article for the Fortnightly Review "On the Political Destiny of Canada," and that is his teaching to-day. In his opinion annexation was morally certain ten years ago. It has not been accomplished yet, and seems as far off as ever, not, however, for want of effort on the part of the Seer, who prophesied the dismemberment of the Empire, for he has strained every effort to bring about the desired result, and now he lends his rare literary talents and scholarly attainments to the cause of Commercial Union, as a step towards the fulfilment of his ancient prophesy. The other two apostles of the new creed are American citizens, one from Ohio, and the other from New York, who, however, respectable and honored in their own country, are certainly not the men who would be selected to formulate a policy for the Canadian people. If they are honest and true to the land of their birth, or the land of their adoption, then the policy they advocate will be in the interests of the United States, or in the supposed interests of Canada as a part of the United States. To suppose they would advocate a policy in the interests of Canada, as distinguished from the United States, would be to argue that they were traitors to their own country, and untrue to their own people. Now, we are not a part of the United States, and we do not intend to become a part of the United States. When the time comes to sever our connection with the Mother Land, it will be to set up for ourselves, not to become a part of the neighbor-And whether we set up for ing Republic. ourselves, or remain a part of the British Empire, we have interests and hopes and aims that belong to us as a people, separate and distinct from the people of the United States. We ought, therefore, to look to Canadian leaders for a policy, not to an Ohio statesman, or a Staten Island politician. But Uncle Sam has more ways than one to carry out the Monroe doctrine, and if Commercial Union is looked upon with the gravest suspicion by all true Canadians, it is because its advocates are either American citizens, or men not known for their loyalty to Canada, or Canada's connection with the British Empire. Commercial Union discriminating against the commerce of England, with a tariff framed at Washington, means political union, no matter how the pill may be sugar-coated, and if that is not what the quack doctors mean, who present the pill, then they are dealing in drugs, whose properties they themselves do not understand, and are as likely as not to be administering poison to their too confiding patients.

ANNEXATION WOULD BE PREFERABLE TO COMMERCIAL UNION, if the choice had to be made between the two, because then as a State, we would at least have a voice in framing our fiscal policy, while under the union advocated, we would be voiceless and powerless, a dependency and not an independent State. That is not the position any Canadian, worthy of the name, would wish to see his country occupy. No one dare preach annexation openly in Canada, but any mischief maker can lend his influence to sow the seeds of dissension wherever they are likely to grow. Any agitator can help to create discontent, which may be turned to disaffection, and that seems to be the main business of the Commercial Unionist at the present time. In what other way can we account for the determined and persisting attempts that are made to write down the trade, the commerce, the manufacturing interests, and the credit of the country? and to write them down in the face of all the evidence. Column after column is written to prove that the country is staggering under a load of debt that threatens to mortgage every taxpayer beyond the possibility of redemption. And yet the writers know that so lightly do the taxes press upon us, that it is extremely doubtful, if from one end of the land to the other, there is a single taxpayer who is conscious that he carries them to the extent of a feather's weight. Article after article is published to prove that the public accounts of the country point always and only towards insolvency and ruin. And yet the authors know that the financial barometers of the Old World—the recognised standards everywhere—show its credit higher than it ever stood before. Writers and speakers teach and preach that poverty's gaunt and ghastly form is everywhere seen throughout the land. And yet the deposits in the savings banks have never reached so high a point. Everywhere, and at all points they are confronted by facts that directly contradict their reckless assertions, and falsify their rash assumptions, but they only shift their ground, and repeat in another form the story to their own shame. It is unpatriotic and untrue to represent the people of Canada as poverty stricken, or unable to compare favorably with their neighbors in the United States, and yet this seems to be the stock in trade of the Commercial Unionist. This is the text upon which he founds every sermon, and no matter what the argument, or how the sermon is divided, the application always points in one direction, and that is annexation.

It is unpatriotic and untrue to represent the people of Canada as clamouring for a closer commercial intercourse with the people of the United States, and as willing to submit to any | mess of pottage.

sacrifice to bring it about. We have the highest respect for our American neighbors, we want to live upon the most friendly terms with them. We know that along an extended line of frontier we can interchange products to the advantage of both people, and if a treaty can be arranged that will be mutually advantageous to both nations without a surrender of independence on the part of the weaker power, it will meet with the cordial support of every Canadian in the land. But we will make no concession of our independence. "We will buy with our American neighbors, sell with them, talk with them, walk with them" interchange commodities with them, but we won't change our flag for them, and we won't be bluffed by them into the surrender of any of the rights and privileges we enjoy as an independent nation.

Perhaps the meanest, the most despicable, the most cowardly argument ever addressed to a spirited people, is that which is addressed to Canadians, when they are urged to adopt Commercial Union as the only settlement of our fishery disputes. No Canadian, with the backbone of a mackerel, would suggest a settlement so humiliating to the manhood of the nation. We may have disputes with our powerful neighbors, and sometimes they may be urged to take advantage of our weakness in unduly pressing their claims, but they are too spirited themselves to have anything but contempt for the cowardly cravens who would yield their rights, rather than dare to assert them. Talk about retaliation, it has been tried before to-day, and has proved a miser-able failure. While we wish to have the freest possible intercourse with the United States, we know that we can do without them just as well as they can do without us! nay better, for we have commodities which they must have, no matter what tariff walls are erected, and our people are not all such fools as to accept the new doctrine of the Commercial Unionist, and believe that Customs dues come out of the pockets of those who sell. Our duty as Canadians is to guard our own. We have rich markets for farm products that are eagerly coveted by American farmers, and the apostles of the new creed would have us throw them open to the world, We have everywhere springing up around us industries, young and vigorous, that give employment to our people, and keep the wealth of the nation for circulation in our own country. And Commercial Union would crush these industries, and scatter the wealth to build up the industries of another people, and give employment to our competitors abroad. We are rich in river, and mine, and forest, and field, and have a brilliant future before us, if only Canadians to themselves be true. and reject the craven counsels of Commercial Unionists, who would sell their country for a

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK, CANADA.

Post Office Savings Banks in Ontario and Quebec are open daily for the receipt and repayment of deposits, during the ordinary hours of Post Office business The direct security of the Dominion is given by the Statute for all deposits made.

Any person may have a deposit account, and may deposit yearly any number of dollars, from $1 up to $300, or more with the permission of the Postmaster-General.

Deposits may be made by married women, and deposits

so made, or made by women who shall afterwards marry, will be repaid to any such woman.

Deposits for children under 10 yrs of age may be made Firstly-by a parent or friend as trustee for the child in which case the deposits can be withdrawn by the trustee until the child shall attain the age of ten years, after which time repayment will be made only on the joint receipts of both trustee and child.

Secondly—In the child's own name—and, if so deposited, repayment will not be made until the child shall attain the age of ten years.

A depositor in any of the Savings Bank Post Offices may continue his deposits at any other of such offices, without notice or change of Pass Book, and can withdraw money at that Savings Bank Office which is most convenient to him.

Each depositor is supplied with a Pass Book, which is to be produced to the Postmaster every time the depositor pays in or withdraws money, and the sums

paid in or withdrawn are entered therein by the Postmaster receiving or paying the same.

Each depositor's account is kept in the Postmaster-General's office, in Ottawa, and in addition to the Post-master's receipt in the Pass Book, a direct acknowledgmaster's receipt in the rass Book, a direct acknowledgment from the Postmaster-General for each sum paid in is sent to the depositor. If this acknowledgment does not reach the depositor within ten days from the date of his deposit, he must apply immediately to the Postmaster-General, by letter, being careful to give his address and if never the Postmaster-General by letter, being careful to give his address, and, if necessary, write again, because the Post-master's receipt or entry in the Pass Book is not sufficient without the further receipt for the money from Ottawa.

Every depositor must send his book once a year, viz., on the anniversary of his first deposit, for comparison with the books of the Department, and for insertion of interest. The book will be returned to him by next mail. At no other time should a depositor suffer his book to be out of his own possession.

When a depositor wishes to withdraw money, he can do so by applying to the Postmaster-General, send him by return mail a cheque for the amount, payable at whatever Savings Bank Post Office the depositor may have named in his application.

Interest at the rate of 4 per cent. per annum is allowed on deposits, and the interest is added to the principal on the 30th June in each year.

THE LAW OF MARRIAGE.

The law as to the solemnization of marriages is contained in the Revised Statutes of Ontario, Chapter 124, which provides for the solemnization of a marriage by any minister or clergyman of every church and religious denomination, duly appointed or ordained according to the rights and ceremonies of the church or denomination to which they respectively belong, resident in Ontario: but no such minister or clergyman shall celebrate the ceremony unless duly authorized so to do by license under the hand and seal of the Lientenant-Governor, or by a certificate under the Act, or unless the intention of the two persons to intermarry has been proclaimed once openly and in an audible voice either in the church, chapel, or meeting house in which one of the parties has been in the habit of attending worship, or with which the minister or clergynnan who performs the ceremony is connected, and in the local municipality, parish, or charge where one of the parties has for the space of fifteen days immediately preceding had his or her usual place of abode; such proclamation to be on a Sunday, immediately ately after the service begins, or after it ends, or at some intermediate part of the service.

Section 3 of the Act provides for the substitution of a certificate instead of the usual marriage license. Such license or certificate shall be issued from the office of the Provincial Secretary, and shall be furnished to parties requiring the same by such persons as the Licettenant-Governor in Council may name for that purpose; and unauthorised persons issuing any such license or certificate for the solemnization of marriage shall forfeit the sum of $100 for every license so issued. This does not, however, apply to the case where a deputy has been appointed with the approval in writing of the mayor or reeve of the city, township, or incorporated village wherein he resides, when the issuer is prevented by illness, or unavoidable accident, or temporary absence from acting himself. Section 7 gives him anthority to appoint a deputy to act in his absence, who while so acting shall possess the powers and privileges of the issuer appointing him.

Before any license or certificate is granted by any issuer, or deputy issuer, one of the parties to the intended marriage shall personally make an affidavit, stating (a) the county or district wherein the marriage shall be solemnized; (b) that he or she believes that there is no affinity, consanguinity, pre-contract, or other lawful cause or legal impediment to bar or hinder the solemnization of the marriage; (c) that one of the parties has for the space of fifteen days immediately preceding the issue of the certificate or license had his or her usual place of abode within the county or district in which the marriage is to be solemnized; or should the place for its solemnization be not that in which either of the parties has for the space of lifteen days immediately preceding the issue of the license or certificate had his or her usual place of abode, that the reason for procuring the marriage to be solemnized in such place is not in order to evade due publicity or for any other improper purpose.

due publicity or for any other improper purpose.

Then, in case either of the parties (not being a widower or widow) is under the age of twenty-one years, the affiliavit shall further state that the conseut of the person whose consent to the marriage is required by law has been obtained thereto. If there is no person having authority to give such consent, then upon oath made to that effect by the party requiring the license or certificate, it shall be lawful to grant a license or certificate notwithstanding the absence of any such consent. Should the issuer have personal knowledge, or reason to suspect that the affidavit is untrue, he shall not issue a license or certificate. The father, if living, of any person under the age of twenty-one (not being a widower or widow), or if the father is dead, the guardian or guardians of the person so under age, or one of the guardians, if there are more than one; or in case there is no such guardian, then the mother of the minor, if the nother is not married, shall have authority to give consent to the marriage.

Every clergyman or minister who celebrates a marriage shall, if required at the time of the marriage by either of the parties thereto, give a certificate of the marriage under his hand, for which he may demand twenty-five cents from the person requiring it.

Our new Combination baths, Galvanic, Vapor, Sulphur, etc., are a great improvement in treating many diseases, deriving the benefit received at the best Mineral Springs, with Electricity combined. See circular. For the treatment of Nervous, Chronic, and Obscure Diseases, not cured by other kinds of treatment (nor by the unskilled and inexperienced). Diseases that follow nervous exhaustion (a lack of vitality or nerve force from various causes, as over brain work, over physical work, excess, abnormal secretions and excretions, producing various phases of disease and suffering in mind and body. Those who wish the treatment at home may have it by ordering one of Prof. Vernoy's Improved Family Batteries, and follow the instructions given with it, which are plain and simple. The cures made with these Improved Batteries scientifically used, according to the new system practiced by Prof. Vernoy, are not limited to any particular class of diseases. It is wonderful to see how such radical changes are so quietly and agreeably made. Acute diseases are often cured as by magic in one or two applications. Female diseases, hopeless cases by other means, displacements and other weaknesses—nervous debility (abnormal evacuations in either sex) permanently cured after years of suffering with other kinds of treatment. Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Catarrh, head, lung, heart, liver, kidney, and other organic troubles and derangements of the system changed to a healthy state as readily as the hard rozen earth is mellowed by the genial rays of the suu by Nature's means, in harmony with her fixed laws. and other organic troubles and derangements of the system changed to a healthy state as readily as the hard frozen earth is mellowed by the genial rays of the sun by Nature's means, in harmony with her fixed laws. Bad cases thus cured will inform you how wonderful the cure is. Address given if you wish it. See the Electric Age for testimonials and references, such as Hon. T. B. Pardee, Sarnia; Chas.
